Congo's Premier Says Crisis Over

LEOPOLDVILLE (UPI) — Premier Patrice Lumumba left tonight for New York after declaring the Congo crisis is over and there is no longer a need for Soviet armed intervention here.

He said he would visit the United Nations and seek aid from U.S. and Canadian leaders to pull his young country out of economic chaos and administrative anarchy.

Lumumba planned a three-hour stopover at Accra for talks with Premier Khame Nkruma of Ghana, who had provided a plane for the trip to New York.

Before leaving Leopoldville he said the action of the United Nations Security Council in asking speedy withdrawal of Belgians troops meant the Russian army was no longer needed and that "the Congo crisis is over."

Lumumba spoke at a news conference shortly before his departure for conferences at the United Nations in New York. He was commenting specifically on adoption of a Security Council resolution urging Belgium to speed up withdrawal of its soldiers from the Congo.

Lumumba for days has been insisting that unless Belgians quit the country he would ask that Soviet soldiers be sent in.

Today, in an abrupt change from his mood of recent days, the premier offered a hand of friendship to Belgium, asserting it was the Belgians who built this country.

The U.N. Security Council earlier today made its second demand in nine days that Belgian troops get out of the Congo and give way to the new U.N. military force. The Soviet Union dropped an attempt to set a three-day deadline for the pullout.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov joined in a unanimous vote for a Ceylonese-Tunisian resolution that called on Belgium to withdraw its forces speedily from the new African republic.

OVERSIZED PET—David Cavagnaro of Tamalpais Valley says the golden Eagle he found in Modoc County will eat from his hand. But David is cautious—"he could take a finger off just like that."

BIG BIRD FROM SIERRA

Marin Youth Nursing Eagle Back To Health

By BRUCE COLEMAN

David Cavagnaro of Tamalpais Valley keeps a golden eagle in his garden, but not without complications.

The eagle, which has a seven-foot wingspread, is wrecking the ferns, says David's mother. It frays the rope that ties its leg, and it requires meat with bones as a diet.

David, 17, a June graduate of Tamalpais High School, found the wounded eagle in Modoc County a week ago while on a camping trip with a friend, Daniel Gaut, 18, of Bolinas.

The bird had been injured and was starving to death, they said. They decided to try to save his life. They fed it, chipmunks, jackrabbits and fish. When he is well again, Cavagnaro said, they will take him back to Eagle Peak in the Sierra where they found him.

The boys were returning to camp from a fishing trip when they heard a noise "like a deer running against brush." They saw the bird, fluttering its wings weakly. Although dubious about his claws and beak, they carried him two miles to their camp, wrapped in their flannel shirts. Back at camp, the eagle was put in a big box.

Next morning the boys gave him water by pouring it over his beak and the eagle drank readily. Then they shot a chipmunk and put it in the box. The eagle lunged at the chipmunk and swallowed it whole.

With food, the bird perked

San Quentin Favors School Annexation

Sixty-five per cent of San Quentin School District voters favor annexation to the San Rafael city elementary school system, it was disclosed last night by a count of annexation petitions.

Joseph O'Brien, clerk of the school board, said 156 persons out of 239 electors in the district had signed petitions in favor of annexation. "We know at least 27 of the 239 have moved out of the district," he added. Signatures of at least 50 per cent of the 239 were necessary to propose annexation.

The petitions will be presented to the County Board of Supervisors after they are checked by the county superintendent of schools' office. The supervisors will have the option either of calling an election on the annexation proposal or taking action themselves without an election, said Edwin L. Blackmore of the county superintendent's staff.

Annexation, if approved, would not go into effect until after July 1, 1961. The two classroom San Quentin School will continue its operation this year. Its trustees plan to send seventh and eighth graders to Davidson School in San Rafael under an interdistrict agreement, O'Brien said. San Quentin high school students currently attend San Rafael High School.

Old Greenbrae Bridge Will Be Demolished

Demolition of the old timber bridge which formerly carried Highway 101 over Corte Madera Creek will prevent opening of the drawbridge starting Monday, the Army Corps of Engineers announced today.

Dismantling of the span will be completed Friday, after which no obstruction will remain. There is, however, a nearby railway bridge requiring 72 hours notice if it is to be opened during weekends.

NO INTERFERENCE

During the period while the span is being removed, there will be no interference "with navigation capable of passing under," according to the notice.

Removal of the now-unused bridge is part of the early stage of a year-long process of completing the new highway and interchanges at Greenbrae. The main highway and its southbound interchanges are already in use. Work was started June 6 by Peter Kiewit Sons Co. of San Francisco on a $1,240,000 contract with the California Division of Highways to remove the bridge and build a concrete fixed bridge carrying northbound off traffic from Highway 101.

COMPLETION DATE

The work is to be completed about August of next year, a spokesman said.

Off-traffic will go over a new bridge which by navigational requirements of the engineers must have 21 feet clearance above mean high water. Near the north bank of the creek, there will be a division, carrying vehicles bound for San Quentin and the Richmond Bridge eastward to the right and turning others to the left for Kentfield and Ross.

This will end use of the present new off-road which makes an extremely sharp turn, marked "15 miles an hour."

Construction will include an on-ramp taking north-bound traffic for 101 from Kentfield and Ross to the west, San Quentin and the Richmond Bridge to the east.

Russ Taking Spy Charge Before U.N.

COMBINED AP & UPI

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. — The Soviet Union went before the U.N. Security Council today with another slashing attack on the United States, charging deliberate violation of Soviet borders by an American spy plane.

Russia declared the United States had been "caught red-handed" in sending over Soviet territorial waters an RB-47 reconnaissance plane shot down July 1 by Russian fighters.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov said dispatch of the RB-47 was "an act of aggression, an act of force" for which the United States stood responsible.

As he spoke, six wives of the crewmen of the plane listened in the public gallery of the U.N. Security Council.

The Soviet complaint to the council was titled "New aggressive acts by the Air Force of the United States against the Soviet Union, creating a threat to universal peace."

The attack was expected to touch off a major cold war clash with the United States, which will reply Monday.

President Eisenhower instructed U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge to hit back hard in accordance with Washington's tough new line toward Soviet threats and accusations.

The Russians are holding two of the plane's six crewmen and are expected to try them as spies. The Russians recovered the body of the plane's pilot, and the other three crewmen are missing.

The United States claims the plane was surveying magnetic lines of force in arctic waters for mapping and was shot down over international waters. The State Department said it was never closer than 30 miles to the Soviet shores.

Fires In 8 States Worst In Decades

Plane Crashes Kill 4 Fighting Blazes

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two converted bombers crashed today in Oregon and California while helping fight the worst forest fires in 30 years in eight western states and Canada. Four men died.

Two crewmen were killed in the explosive flaming crash of a converted B-25 bomber in eastern Oregon.

Two also were killed in the crash of a similar plane in Angeles National Forest north of Los Angeles.

Both planes had been dumping fire-retarding borate solution.

The sheriff's office said the two men aboard were killed.

HUNDREDS OF FIRES

The crashes sharpened the tragedy of hundreds of fires that have destroyed forests, watersheds and homes in the past few days from British Columbia to Mexico.

Interior Department officials called the conflagrations the worst in the west in 30 years.

As exhausted men battled the flames in nine states and a Canadian province, urgent calls for help were issued. Response came from as far east as Pennsylvania.

Gov. Robert E. Smylie of Idaho declared an extreme emergency existed in his state and asked President Eisenhower to recognize Idaho as a major disaster area.

DISASTER AREA

Los Angeles County declared itself a disaster area, calling the fire outbreak its worst in history.

Flames roared on through other wooded areas of California and Oregon, Nevada, Utah, Wyoming, Montana, Washington, Arizona and British Columbia.

In Idaho's Boise National Forest, it was estimated the toll may reach 20,000 acres.

A 4-000-acre fire on Rattlesnake Mountain crackled to within a mile of Shoshone National Forest's great timber stands west of Cody, Wyo.

HEAVYWEIGHT TITLE FIGHT SET FOR L.A.

NEW YORK (UPI) — The third Floyd Patterson-Ingemar Johansson heavyweight title fight will be staged at the Los Angeles Coliseum, Nov. 1, Bill Fugazy announced today.

U.S. Expels Soviet Envoy For Spying

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States today ordered the immediate expulsion of a Soviet diplomat Petr Y. Ezhov on the grounds he was a spy collecting intelligence data, including aerial photographs.

The State Department said that Ezhov, a Soviet Embassy third secretary, "flagrantly abused his diplomatic status by engaging in espionage activity."

$1,000 FOR PHOTOS

Ezhov paid an American commercial photographer, the department said, more than $1,000 for aerial photographs of American cities.

Informed authorities reported Ezhov carried out some of his intelligence work while Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev was in the United States on a goodwill visit last September.

A second Soviet diplomat, Cmdr. Vladimir S. Glinsky, was involved in the same kind of intelligence activity, the department said.

ROLE DISCLOSED

Glinsky's role in setting up the aerial photography apparently came to light after he had already left the embassy to return to Moscow. He was an assistant naval attache.

The FBI was understood to have closely watched Ezhov's activities for months before it turned its evidence over to the State Department.

Ezhov worked with a photographer whom the State Department refused to identify. The diplomat paid for flying lessons for the photographer and indicated the Soviets might buy him a plane in order to carry out systematic aerial reconaissance photography, the department said.

"Ezhov also financed trips by this individual in the course of which he took photographs of United States Navy installations and other intelligence targets, later furnishing these photographs to Ezhov and being paid for them," the statement said.

The State Department said the aerial photography specifically violated regulations put into effect Jan. 19, 1955.

Reds Girding For Move On West Berlin?

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States was reliably reported today to have received an intelligence report that the Russians and Communist East Germans may be preparing a "military move" against free West Berlin within the next 30 days.

Authoritative sources said this ominous threat to the Red-encircled free world outpost was one of the principal topics discussed when Secretary of State Christian A. Herter conferred earlier this week with President Eisenhower at Newport, R. I.

The report came as a West German Defense Ministry spokesman said in Bonn that the Russians and East Germans have been busy building up an iron ring of arms around the western outpost of free Berlin.

(The State Department denied that it had received such a report. It also denied that Herter discussed the subject at Newport.)

Rocky Spurns Running Mate Enticements

CHICAGO (UPI)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller today rejected as "seriously" inadequate Republican planks designed to entice him into accepting the vice presidential spot on a GOP election ticket headed by Richard M. Nixon.

Republicans drafting a platform for the Republican National Convention opening Monday were reported to have made major concessions to the New York governor on such controversial issues as civil rights, defense spending and medical aid for the aged.

But Rockefeller's press secretary, Robert L. McManus, declared that the governor still was displeased. He chilled hopes of a Nixon-Rockefeller ticket by referring to "clear conflicts of views" between the two men.

McManus told a news conference that Rockefeller was deeply concerned over reports that platform drafts "on a number of matters—including national defense, foreign policy and some critical domestic issues—are still seriously lacking in strength and specifics."

Nixon's press secretary, Herbert G. Klein, said the vice president's camp would have no comment on Rockefeller's stand. See related stories on page three.

EISENHOWER ASKS U.N. DISARM TALKS

President Tells Lodge To Seek Speedy Negotiations, Puts Russ On Defensive

NEWPORT, R. I. (AP)—President Eisenhower's call for resumption of disarmament talks to reduce war risk was reported today to be part of U. S. strategy aimed at putting the Soviet Union on the defensive.

The President announced last night that the United States wants an early meeting of representatives of all 82 United Nations countries for urgent discussion of a way out of the arms race.

In a statement issued at the summer White House, Eisenhower said he had instructed Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, chief of the U. S. delegation to the U. N., to petition today for speedy revival of disarmament negotiations. Lodge arranged to do so.

In sounding his call for new talks by all U. N. members, Eisenhower recalled the Soviet delegates had walked out of the 10-nation disarmament negotiations at Geneva last month At the time the United States was about to outline new proposals.

NO SUCCESS

"Our efforts to get the Soviet Union to return to the conference table through normal diplomatic channels have not met with success . . ." Eisenhower said.

"The need for disarmament in the present world situation is too important to set aside at the present time when deliberate efforts are being made to increase tensions."

That was an obvious allusion to the many-sided anti-American campaign the Soviet Union has been carrying on since Premier Nikita Khrushchev wrecked the Paris summit conference last May.

Eisenhower went on to say that under its charter the United Nations has primary responsibility in the disarmament field.

'YEARLY MEETING'

Then he announced that he had instructed Lodge to seek "an early meeting of the Disarmament Commission of the United Nations so that we and other members of the international community can continue to search for ways and means to achieve the universal desire to reduce the risk of war by controlled steps of disarmament." Such a meeting of the 82-nation membership requires a majority vote, at least 42 votes.

After the President's call Thursday night, U. N. diplomats expressed belief that the U. S. request for an early meeting would be approved.

However, many delegates—including some Western Allies—were extremely cool toward the idea.

Ex-Car Mogul To Pay Back Vendor Profit

DETROIT (AP)—Board chairman L. L. Colbert of Chrysler Corp. said today an investigation is continuing into outside business interest of officials of the automobile company.

The investigation was disclosed suddenly yesterday with the announcement by the board of directors in New York that William C. Newberg had agreed to pay Chrysler more than $450,000 in profits made by him from interests in companies which sell to Chrysler.

QUIT JOB

Newberg quit as Chrysler president June 30 after holding the job only 64 days. At that time it was said only that there were differences of opinion on matters of corporate policy.

Varied reports circulated in Detroit regarding the reasons, but both Chrysler and Newberg remained absolutely mum until yesterday's announcement.

Last night, when Colbert returned to Detroit, he told newsmen the investigation will be continued by the company's general counsel, the New York law firm of Kelley, Drye, Newhall and Maginnes, along with independent auditors.

OTHERS INVOLVED

He was asked if other Chrysler officials were involved.

"I know of no one at this time," he said. "Let's not get into that."

Three months ago at the Chrysler annual stockholders' meeting Colbert, then president of the company, said, "I would like it understood that I do not own nor have I ever owned any interest, stock or otherwise, in any of our vendors." Neither did any of his family, he said, and to his knowledge neither did any of other officers or director of Chrysler.

Chrysler and Newberg refused to identify any of the suppliers involved. Newberg, through an attorney, issued a statement saying he saw nothing wrong with his dealings, but he refused to say what the dealings were.

FLAGS GO UP, BOMBS BURST AS SCOUTS OPEN BIG JAMBOREE

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — Band music sifted across the camp ground, and aerial bombs exploded today as 51 flags were raised high over the sprawling site of the National Jamboree of the Boy Scouts of America.

The flags represented each of the 50 states, plus the red, white and blue flag of the nation complete with 50 stars.

The flag-raising ceremony, with thousands of Boy Scouts watching from the hillsides dotting the 2,400-acre campsite, officially opened the fifth jamboree for 56,078 scouts.

The music, played by the 120-member Central Indiana Council Band of Indianapolis, was indicative of the period in which various states joined the union.

Flags of the original 13 states were the first to flutter over the vast camp area, located north of here in the shadows of Pike's Peak.

Chronicle Sues Over 'Expose' Of 'Last Man'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco Chronicle filed a one-and-one-half million-dollar libel suit yesterday against its morning competitor, the San Francisco Examiner, and the Hearst Publishing Co.

The superior court suit stemmed from what the Examiner called an expose published yesterday of the Chronicle-soonsored "last man" wilderness survival experiment.

The Chronicle charged the Examiner's article and photographs about Harvey (Bud) Boyd and his family in the wilderness of Northern California's Trinity Alps were malicious, false and defamatory. The compiaint said the article was designed to injure the Chronicle's "reputation for truthful, honest and accurate reporting."

It asked one million dollars in actual damages and $500,000 in punitive damages.

Boyd, Chronicle, outdoor editor, his wife and three children, planned a six-week survival test but ended it prematurely 11 days after they began, the Chronicle announced. The Boyds reside in Mill Valley.

In a syndicated series entitled "The Last Man," Boyd wrote daily accounts of his family's existence in the wilds, reportedly living without supplies or camping gear.

Dysentery and hunger forced the Boyds to end the experiment July 10, the Chronicle said.

The Chronicle's announcement that the test had failed followed publication yesterday morning by the rival paper that Examiner staff members had found the Boyd camp abandoned in the Trinity Alps, 250 miles north of San Francisco.

The Examiner, under a headline "Boyd's camping jaunt exposed," said the camp was littered with empty food cans, burned matches, soap, bottle tops and toilet paper—items not listed by Boyd in his published survival tools.

The Chronicle printed an explanation: Boyd's two daughters, his son and wife were too weak to walk out of their camp so he left and returned with goods and other necessities on a pack horse. When the party returned to civilization they left behind the items found by the Examiner men.

In articles published in 41 newspapers throughout the country, Boyd, 41, told how he, his wife, Betty, 44; daughters, Susan, 15; and Sharon, 12, and son Bruce, 8, carried only knives, salt, rope, string and an ax when they went into the woods. He wanted to see whether man could survive on his own as he might have to after a nuclear war.

They ate only fish, frogs and dandelions, Boyd reported.

New Policy: U.S. Will Call Soviet's Bluff

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has embarked on a policy of calling the Soviet Union's bluff each time it believes Kremlin leaders are threatening action they never will dare carry out.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter disclosed that tough new line yesterday in blasting Soviet threats to send troops to the violent-tracked Congo.

ABANDONS CAUTION

Abandoning his usual diplomatic caution, Herter bluntly assailed as a reckless bluff Moscow's widely advertised claims it wants to help stamp out what it called Western imperialism in the new African republic.

Herter pledged that the United States will press ahead with all-out moral and material support for United Nations efforts to end the violence, regardless of Soviet threats.

Responsible diplomatic authorities said today more firm rejoinders of this kind can be expected from administration leaders in handling Moscow's virtual unprecedented campaign of threats, protests, insults and propaganda.

MOSTLY BLUSTER

This reflects a high-level administration belief that the Soviet threats represent more phony bluster than menace. It is believed that in all of Moscow's output so far, threats have been carefully hedged to sound frightening without committing the Soviet Union to action.

The call-the-bluff policy will carry one step farther the administration's determination to fire back tough and fast at Moscow's anti-American propaganda thrusts.

Administration leaders are reported convinced that stern language, backed up by a readiness to act to protect vital interests, offers the best hope of compelling the Kremlin to call off its campaign.

SKELETON ON ISLAND?

New Theory Presented On Amelia Earhart Death

SAN DIEGO (AP)— Another theory of what may have happened to Amelia Earhart was offered yesterday by a former U. S. Coast Guardsman.

He said she and her navigator, Fred Noonan, may have met death on Gardner Island in their attempted trans-Pacific flight 23 years ago.

Floyd Kilts, 68, now on leave from a State Department of Veterans Affair job, went to Gardner Island on a Coast Guard mission during World War II.

He said a native told him that in the latter part of 1938 the skeleton of a woman and the skull of a man were found on the shore of the island.

A white planter believed the skelton might be Miss Earhart's, and started to Suva, Fiji Islands, with it, Kilts said he was told. But he died of pneumonia on the way and superstitious native boatmen threw the skeleton overboard.

Kilts pointed out that isolated Gardner Island was on the route Miss Earhart was believed to have taken from New Guinea. He said he considered the story he heard much more probable than the one that she came down on Saipan Island, far off the supposed course, and was killed by Japanese.

Conservative GOP Opposed To Lodge

CHICAGO (AP) — Conservative Republicans raised echoes of the 1952 Taft-Eisenhower battle today in opposition to the possible choice of Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. as the GOP vice presidential candidate.

Lodge, United Nations ambassador, is reported high up on a brief personal list from which Vice President Richard M. Nixon plans to choose his running mate.

NO DOUBT

Among the practical politicians gathering here for next week's convention there is no shadow of a doubt that once Nixon has named his man the delegates in the end will accept him. But many thought there still is time left to influence Nixon's judgment.

Rep. B. Carroll Reece, Tennessee state chairman, said he has found strong opposition among backers of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio to having Lodge on the ticket.

Reece said the Taft men, who still form a considerable wing of the party, have tabbed Lodge as the originator of the Texas delegate "steal" charges that were used by President Eisenhower's associates in the 1952 convention maneuvering.

John T. Diederich, Kentucky committeeman, is booming home-stater Sen. Thruston B. Morton, the GOP national chairman, for second place on the ticket.

Gov. William G. Stratton of Illinois said yesterday he thinks there ought to be an open-convention choice of Nixon's running mate.

Among others he named Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen and Rep. Leslie C. Arends of Illinois, House GOP Leader Charles Halleck of Indiana, Secretary of Interior Fred A. Seaton, Rep. Gerald R. Ford Jr. of Michigan, and Maurice Stans, director of the budget and a Chicagoan.

Friends of Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.) are steaming up sentiment for him for the vice presidential nomination.

KLEIN'S LIST

Goldwater's name was one of those included on a list from which Herbert G. Klein, Nixon's press secretary, said he believes the nominee will come.

Klein said the Nixon headquarters had received about 200 telegrams plugging potential vice presidential candidates.

Others mentioned by Klein include Seaton, Ford, Secretary of the Treasury Robert B. Anderson, Sens. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania and John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky and former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York.

This was about the first time that Dewey's name had popped up in speculation which centered on what some Republicans contend is a need to have a ticket that will appeal to New York voters. Some GOP members think Rockefeller would fit that pattern.

Mobile Prison Conservation Camp Started

SACRAMENTO (AP) — By Aug. 1 the state will have three completely self-sufficient mobile convict conservation camps operating in California forests.

The first camp, made up of 40 inmates, five guards and six forestry workers, was activated near Springville in Tulare County yesterday.

It has seventeen trailers — for sleeping quarters, water, electric generator, liquid gas, toilets, shop and warehouse, kitchen, mess hall, refrigerator, recreation room and office.

The trailers are towed by existing forestry equipment when the camp moves.

DeWitt Nelson, state natural resources director, said the camps will enable the state to undertake conservation projects that are too small, too high or too scattered to be accomplished by conventional permanent camps.

Willkie's Son Wants To Be Vice President

CHICAGO (UPI) — Philip H. Willkie, whose father blitzed a Republican convention 20 years ago, had his own hat in the ring today.

Willkie, the 40-year-old son of 1940 GOP presidential nominee Wendell Willkie, yesterday formally announced his candidacy for the Republican vice presidential nomination.

Now a Rushville, Ind., lawyer-banker, he promised that if elected, he would use his influence to persuade Congress to grant parents with children in college and self-supporting students a tax reduction of up to $2,000 a year to cover their school expenses.

Young Willkie always has shown a special interest in education.

He was nominated last month at the Indiana State Republican Convention for the post of state superintendent of public instruction, the top school post in the state.

Willkie said in a formal statement that if he should fail to win the vice presidential nomination at next week's GOP convention he would continue his campaign for the Indiana school post "as strenuously as possible."

He listed as one of his goals "to teach all children to read by the phonetic method, to write and speak good grammatical English and speak and understand a foreign language beginning in the primary grades."

Cars Pile Up At Rail Crossing

Ben Seidlin, San Francisco shopkeeper, was prompt in obeying the stop signal of a railway light which began blinking as he was westbound on the Black Point cutoff road yesterday.

He stopped his car so quickly, that Albert E. Loew of 32 Warner Court, San Rafael, following close behind, rammed Seidlin's sedan, injuring Eugenia Taylor, 58, Seidlin's passenger, who refused medical attention.

LITTLE 'ME-TOOISM'

Republicans Start Platform Writing Job

CHICAGO (AP)—Republicans buckled down today to a job of putting on paper a platform they hope will contribute to a party victory in November.

Leaders predicted the document will have little "me-too-ism"—a tag given some past GOP platforms by critics who contended the Republicans aped the Democrats in social welfare promises.

Certainly the platform will differ dramatically from that adopted by Democrats at Los Angeles last week if it reflects the predominant tone of those who made recommendations this week.

The platform will go to the convention Wednesday for adoption.

Most of the 200-odd persons who testified before the 103-member Platform Committee during the last three days called for a halt to injecting the federal government into the economic and social welfare life of the nation.

The Democratic platform, on the other hand, pledged to expand federal activities in these fields.

In writing the platform, the GOP drafters will give much weight to the wishes of Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the party's all-but-certain presidential nominee. Nixon has been keeping in close touch with leaders of the Platform Committee.

There is one area in which the Republicans may find themselves called upon to broaden federal activity. That is the controversial issue of racial discrimination in voting, education, housing and other spheres of human relations.

Civil rights advocates urged the Republicans to come up with as bold a civil rights plank as the Democrats.

A big majority of those offering platform suggestions urged the GOP to adopt a policy of extending federal aid in economic and social welfare activities only when the states, local governments, and individuals are unable to do the essential job.

The platform is expected to approve President Eisenhower's conduct of foreign affairs and to pledge that his Republican successor would continue his efforts to thwart Communist expansion.

It is expected to maintain—as Democrats deny—that the administration has kept the nation powerful enough militarily.

Gen. Robert E. Lee's wife, Mary, was the step-grand-daughter of George Washington.

TOGETHERNESS STARTED IN CRADLE DAYS

DETROIT (AP) — Mary Barbara Doyle and Jerry Salkowski first saw each other in a nursery.

They were born there Dec. 8, 1941. The same doctor delivered both. In the first grade of school they met again.

Aftr the eighth grade their paths parted. They went to different high schools.

Yesterday they got a marriage license. They'll be married next week.

Prayer Urged To Change Khrushchev

NEW YORK (AP)—Prayer for Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev was urged today by an interdenominational publication. It said the same thing could happen to him that happened to Saul of Tarsus.

Saul, the violent persecutor of early Christians, was converted on the road to Damascus and became the great missionary apostle, Paul.

United Evangelical Action, official organ of the National Assn. of Evangelicals, said that just as God's grace had melted Saul's 'determined heart," it could "do the same thing for Khrushchev."

TOYING WITH AMOVING IDEA

Kenney Schuman, ready to move from his Denver home to Des Moines, Iowa, after being transferred in his job with the National Farmers Union, wonders how he is going to move the 1,000-pound playhouse he built in his backyard for his children, Phillip, 4, and Nora, 8. It's too, too unwieldy for a rented trailer.

Food Prices Help Boost Living Costs

WASHINGTON (AP)—The cost of living climbed one-fifth of 1 per cent in June to its fourth consecutive high, the Labor Department reported today.

Food prices — Mainly fresh fruits and pork — contributed virtually all the rise, the department said, but gasoline prices helped provide an upward shove.

The consumer price index reached a level of 126.5 per cent of the 1947-49 average. This was two points higher than a year ago and, in percentage terms, represented a drop in the buying power of the dollar of more than one and one-half cents in the past 12 months.

Some 600,000 workers will receive wage boosts under escalator wage contracts which compensate for climbing living costs.

WAGE INCREASES

Adjustments will bring increases averaging two cents an hour to workers of General Electric Co. and one cent to employes of Sylvania Electric, Douglas Aircraft, and McDonnell Aircraft.

The possibility that living costs may stay fairly steady this month was held out by Arnold Chase, chief of the price division of the Bureau of Labor statistics.

After July, Chase said, a seasonal decline in food prices should occur, and "we could get some decline in the index after this month."

Despite the over-all rise in the living costs of city families, a number of prices declined in June. Fresh vegetables and eggs went down, new car prices dropped almost 1 per cent, and the prices of major home appliances decreased for the fifth month in a row.

EARNINGS UP

The spendable earnings of factory workers edged up 18 cents a week, or two-tenths of 1 per cent.

This brought the take-home pay, after deduction of income and social security taxes, to $81.59 per week for a worker with three dependents and $74.03 for a worker without dependents.

The rise was attributed to an increase of one-tenth of an hour in the factory work week, but it brought the average worker no increase in buying power because of the offsetting rise in consumer prices.

HORST GOERITZ
Two ambitions

Berlin Native Named HAFB Top Airman

A/2c Horst Goeritz, named airman of the month at Hamilton Air Force Base, hopes one day to be a pilot—and an American citizen.

Goeritz, 23, was born in Berlin. He came to the United States in 1957, sponsored by an American airman he had met during the German occupation. He lived in Milwaukee, Wis., with his sponsor, then enlisted in the Air Force in 1959, following up an old ambition to be a soldier.

Goeritz had worked with precision instruments in a German trade school; he is now a precision instrument repairman with the 78th field AM maintenance squadron at Hamilton.

He will be eligible to apply for citizenship in 1962. Soon afterward, he hopes to apply for aviation cadet training.

Goeritz, as airman of the month, wins an expense paid weekend in San Francisco, including Giants' ball game seats, and a $25 check.

The dental care bill for all Americans last year amounted to $1,700,000,000.

School Board Passes Budget Of $163,859

Lagunitas School District trustees last night approved a budget of $163,859 for 1960-61, which is $5,322 more than last year's total of $158,537. 88.

The district's general purpose tax rate will remain at the maximum, $2 per $100 of assessed valuation, Supt. Clifford L. Frye reported. Override taxes for special purposes will add 20 cents.

FOR MAINTENANCE

A good portion of the increase in the budget is for maintenance, salaries, one additional teacher, and improving the library. About $1,000 is included for library books, and more for maintenance than past years because the district is trying to get the building in "as good shape as possible," Frye said.

A public hearing on the budget will be held at 8 p.m. Aug. 3 at the school.

NAMED TO BOARD

In other business, the board:

1. Appointed Mrs. Winifred S. Frederick its representative on the county school boards association legislative committee.

2. Decided to continue its curriculum evaluation program by moving into a second phase, study of the various areas of curriculum. The first phase was a testing program.

3. Approved painting the interior of the primary building.

4. Authorized its architect to proceed with preliminary drawings for the proposed addition to the school.

The Veiling Cap

The hatlet or the veiling cap is the season's most important accessory, reports Women's Wear Daily. Several stores are showing a single,, large flower hatlet that goes well with most coiffures. Others feature veiling from a simple net to tiny flowers, trellis, circle bands or bows.

274 Injured In Japanese Police-Student Clash

In the brief but bloody encounter 274 persons — 213 students and 61 police—were reported hurt. At least 25 students were arrested.

The flareup occurred hours after fears of widespread bloodshed had faded in the wake of government-sponsored efforts to reach a settlement of the long labor dispute at the Miike Coal Mines here.

The students, members of the extremist Zengakuren Federation, were at the end of a parade of 10,000 striking coal miners and their sympathizers.

Snake-dancing in front of police headquarters, the students used clubs and flag sticks on the police. The police replied with night sticks.

The strike protesting the discharge of 2,200 miners in an economy move is in its 179th day. On Wednesday the miners accepted an offer of arbitration by the Central Labor Relations Board. Management is expected to accept also.

Today's demonstration was regarded as a last gesture by the miners.

Quentin Aide Injured In Dixie Crash

Jessie C. Gulledge Jr. of 271 Sausalito Street, Corte Madera, suffered a broken leg, a hip fractured in two places, a cracked pelvis and a possible broken back.

His wife, Thelma Ann, suffered a broken rib and was badly bruised. Their daughter, Patricia, 13, was badly bruised and cut on the right leg. A cousin who also was in the car, Calvin Gibbs, was not hurt but his wife suffered three broken ribs, according to information received by prison officials.

Gulledge received word last Saturday that his mother had died in a Washington, D. C. hospital. He and his family left Saturday night for funeral services in Georgia. He had returned only a week earlier from a three-week vacation visit with his mother.

British Cabinet Hit By Two Resignations

LONDON (AP) — The surprise resignation of a second minister from the British government today guaranteed the biggest cabinet reshuffle since Prime Minister Harold Macmillan took over from Sir Anthony Eden in 1957.

Health Minister Derek Walker-Smith quit because, some associates reported, he failed to win promotion to a senior post. Walker-Smith, 50, has long been regarded as one of the ablest of the Conservative ministers and a favorite of party rank and filers. His resignation takes effect Monday.

The cabinet shakeup—expected next week—has been forced on Macmillan by a decision of one of his senior colleagues to resign. He is Chancellor of the Exchequer Derek Heathcoat Amory, who said he has had enough of bigtime public service.

Amory's departure carries international implications because it is known that Selwyn Lloyd, who has been foreign secretary since 1955, has been asked by Macmillan to take over control of the Treasury. The ambitious Lloyd evidently feels a term in charge of the nation's finances will do no harm to his chances ultimately of becoming prime minister.

Latest candidate mentioned for the job of foreign secretary is the Earl of Home, a cousin of Eden and now Commonwealth relations secretary.

Macmillan must be well aware, however, that such an appointment would raise a parliamentary storm because, as a peer, Lord Home could not answer for British foreign policy in the House of Commons.

Regulation On Smog Supported

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Representatives of San Francisco Bay Area industries gathered for a panel discussion on burning regulations last night, and generally agreed that the proposed Regulation 2 is fair and workable.

Regulation 2 of the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District is written to require all organizations that put contaminants into the air to register with the district and work out limits to the amounts they can exude.

John LeGros, manager of Shell Oil's technical division at Pittsburg, moderated the panel and said:

"It is a good and sound regulation, within the realm of economic reason. The restrictions are tight but they apply to known causes of air pollution."

Benjamin Linsky, control officer of the district, said he was "pleased with the progressive and helpful attitude expressed by those who are actually going to do the work."

The discussion was attended by 130 industrial representatives.

Arraignment Of Hopps Postponed

BALTIMORE (AP) — Arraignment of Stewart B. Hopps, Belvedere financier accused of using the mails to defraud, has been postponed until Tuesday at the request of Hopps' attorney.

Mail fraud charges against the 59-year-old financier involve promotional brochures for the International Guaranty and Insurance Co. of Tangier, Morocco.

Driverless Car Smashes Another

A driverless car which ran a block down Sausalito's Spring Street early today, causing heavy damage to another car, may have been deliberately set rolling, Sausalito police declared.

The car of James F. Phipps of 611½ Spring Street hit the parked car of William W. Kirsch at 522 Spring Street at 1:40 a.m. Phipps told police he had parked his car, set the brakes and locked the doors and windows. The wind wing of the auto was open and handbrake off when the car was found.

Burglars Hit Pharmacy Again; Trio Questioned

West Marin Pharmacy at Point Reyes Station, broken into twice previously within the last seven months, was hit for the third time early today by thieves armed with a drill.

This time, however a burglar alarm apparently frightened the thieves away before they could get any loot. Sheriff's inspectors said the burglar may have been after narcotics.

Three men, one an ex-convict, were caught later this morning in Sebastopol and held for questioning about the attempted break-in.

Deputy Sheriff Kenneth Irving said the burglar alarm went off about 12:30 a.m. and residents in Point Reyes Station spotted a car driving away north. Sebastopol police stopped a car answering the description put out by the Marin sheriff's deputies.

Being held in Sebastopol were George M. Cirvello, 29, a burglar on parole from Hawaii; William Wayne Keller, 24; and Charles Floyd Kelman. They live in San Francisco. Chief Criminal Deputy Ellis Seibert and Inspector Mike Melovich of the Marin sheriff's office went to Sonoma County to question the men.

Deputy Irving said a brace and bit were found in the suspect's car.

Wayne Peterson, owner of West Marin Pharmacy, reported merchandise was scattered on the floor, but nothing appears to be missing. Evidence showed that the burglars pried the door of Dr. Frederick J. Saam next door, then used a brace and bit to drill holes in the wall of the dentist's office and punch their way into the drug store.

The pharmacy was entered last December and again in February.

Madera Man Found Dead Near Quarry

A man from Madera was found dead, apparently from a gunshot wound, near Bennie Albini's rock quarry in Tomales today.

Undersheriff Eugene Meyer said death appears to be suicide. His name was withheld, pending notification of next of kin.

Albini called the sheriff at 9:25 a.m. to report that a man lay beside a pickup truck, with a gun lying near by. He had seen the pickup truck at the same spot last night. When he noticed the vehicle still there this morning, he went to investigate.

Coroner Frank J. Keaton said the body was taken to Parent Funeral Home in Petaluma.

EAGLE

up immediately, Cavagnaro said. The first day he ate three chipmunks; the next day, two more. He had two jackrabbits, too. While traveling he was fed two and one-half pounds of hamburger, a six-pound carp and four trout.

The food made the eagle feel so well, he treed three bears in Yosemite that had come to a garbage can to feed, said young Cavagnaro. He merely bristled up his feathers and flapped his wings and the bears took to the trees.

Cavagnaro said the eagle was wounded under a wing. It is not yet ready to fly.

In 10 days Cavagnaro will attend a five-week University of California field course in entomology in the Sierra. If the eagle is well, Cavagnaro and his friend Gaut will return it to its wild state.

The bird is tied by one leg with a rope to a pine tree. He eats out of Cavagnaro's hand, but the youth said he is cautious because "he could take a finger off just like that."

Cavagnaro is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Cavagnaro of 421 Shoreline Highway. He will attend University of California at Davis this fall, studying entomology. Gaut will attend College of Marin.

Postman Guilty In Exposure Case

Mail Carrier Elroy Miles Dawson, 24, of 1216 Vallejo Street, Novato, was found guilty last night of attempting to expose himself indecently to an Ignacio housewife on July 13.

Judge Harold J. Haley ordered Dawson turned over to Marin Superior Court to determine whether he is a sexual psychopath.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales pressed a charge of indecent exposure. The woman testified that Dawson came to the door asking for a glass of water, then conducted himself in a lewd manner although there was no actual physical exposure.

From the evidence presented, the judge ruled that the man was guilty of attempted exposure.

consuming more than 1,000 acres near Missoula.

Smoke billowed dense and black over 110,000 acres of California's forest and grasslands from the Los Angeles area to the Oregon line.

Freak winds in the Sunland-Tujunga area drove flames across the parched valley between the Verduga and San Gabriel Mountain ranges, destroying many homes.

Officials estimate more than 10 million dollars damage in the San Dimas sector of Angeles National Forest, where 20,000 acres were consumed and the flames were advancing.

In the Magic Mountain area, 29 miles north of Los Angeles, 20,000 acres were burned, seven homes destroyed and Nike anti-aircraft missile sites threatened.

Two youth camps were evacuated near Big Pines, 70 miles southeast of Los Angeles, where flames tore through 2,300 acres of timber.

Thirty miles east of Los Angeles, in the San Gabriel Canyon, 11,000 acres of vital watershed was decimated.

Flames were stopped one mile short of the Hearst Castle, a multi-million-dollar treasure of art and antiquities that the publisher's family gave the state for a museum at San Simeon. The fire in San Luis Obispo County was 13 miles long and seven miles wide.

There were 106 fires in Oregon national forests.

Weary men struggled to stem the relentless advance of flames in Nevada's Toiyabe National Forest and the Tonto and Coccnino National Forests in Arizona. Others battled fires near St. George, Utah.

Auto Flips On Lateral

Two alert California Highway Patrol officers crossing the Golden Gate Bridge at 1:45 a.m. today noted headlights of a car turning down the Sausalito lateral road, then tracing a wild pattern indicating rollover.

Patrolmen V. C. Weimer and J. N. Kendricks found an overturned small imported convertible beside the lateral, with its driver lying 30 feet away.

The driver, Christopher Anthony Farone, 29, of 5A Crescent Avenue, Sausalito, was taken to Marin General Hospital, with concussion and cuts on head and face. He was reported in good condition today.

In rolling, the car struck a sign reading "San Francisco-Sausalito" which was knocked down by another overturning car about a month ago.

Landscape Winner To Talk On KTIM

San Rafael Meadows Home Hit By Thief

A thief prowled through a home in San Rafael Meadows last night and got away with a considerable haul, the owner reported to the sheriff today.

Novato City Consultant Leaving Soon

Robert O. Bailey, city administrative consultant for Novato, will leave late this summer to be replaced by one of the more than 40 persons who have applied for the post of city administrator.

Bailey came to work for Novato on a "crash" basis Jan. 20, the same day incorporation became official. Residents had voted to incorporate eight days earlier.

Bailey said today that all members of the five-man city council had asked him at one time or another "what it would take to make me stay." Bailey said it would take about $16,000 yearly.

Council members have agreed on a starting salary range of from $9,000 to $12,000 for city administrator. Bailey had been receiving $13,340 as Chico city manager until his resignation last November.

He was brought to Novato primarily by councilman Charles R. Johnson, who consulted with the League of California Cities for a recommendation. The entire council approved hiring him. He is paid $1,100 monthly plus $300 monthly travel expenses.

Bailey will leave to become co-founder of a consulting firm in a San Joaquin Valley City. He will specialize in management consultation; a partner will handle other phases. Bailey declined to reveal the town or exact nature of the proposed firm.

He said he would remain to get the new city administration started on his job, which means he would leave in late August or early September.

OBITUARIES

Contractor J. Chesnut Dies At 80

James H. Chesnut, 80, builder, contractor and 40-year resident of Mill Valley, died today after a short illness at his home at 129 Eldridge Avenue.

Chesnut, a private contractor, was also superintendent of construction for several buildings at Tamalpais High School and was builder of the Mill Valley Community Church. He has built hundreds of homes throughout Marin County.

Chesnut began carpentry work at the age of 15 in the Oakland ship yards where wooden sailing schooners were still being built. He subsequently built railroad cars for the Pullman Co. and later bridges for the state highway division.

In 1920 Chesnut moved from Oakland, his birthplace, to Mill Valley.

Although he went into semi-retirement for 10 years, he nevertheless continued to do carpentry work and was active in the Carpenters' Union 1710 up until his death. He was also a member of the board of directors of the Marin Democratic Assembly.

He is survived by his wife, Helen Chesnut of the family home; two sons, James G. Chesnut of Larkspur and Thompson V. Chesnut of Mill Valley; a sister, Mrs. Flora Bruml of Hayward, and six grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Russell and Gooch Mortuary in Mill Valley.

W. I. Thayer Dies At 79

Wilbur I. Thayer, 79, resident of Marin County for 67 years and owner of the former Thayer Garage in San Rafael, died yesterday of a heart attack at his home at 157 Woodland Avenue.

Thayer came to Marin from New York City when he was 12 with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Alvin I. Thayer, and a brother, the late Clifford Thayer.

When he was 19 he went to work for Wells Fargo. In 1902, with his father and brother, he started a bicycle repair shop on Fourth Street in San Rafael. The next year the horseless carriage appeared in Marin and the Thayers changed their business from bicycle to automobile repair.

In 1904 Thayer bought what is believed to be the first car ever owned by a San Rafael resident. The 1904 Oldsmobile was recently turned over by Thayer to the Marin County Historical Society.

In 1936 Thayer retired and closed his Fourth Street garage.

He is survived by his wife, Josephine Thayer, at the family home.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. at Keaton's Mortuary in San Rafael. Inurnment will be private.

Mrs. Thayer requests that memorial tributes may be contributions to a favorite charity.

He is survived by a son, Russell Loveland, serving with the Air Force; three daughters, Mrs. Alvina Salas, Mrs. Billie Zumbach and Miss Kathy Loveland, all of Eel Rock Humboldt County; a brother Frank Loveland of Novato and six grandchildren.

Burial was at the Ukiah Cemetery.

IN 'POLLYANNA'—Adolph Menjou gives a little assistance to Kenin Corcoran and Pollyanna in the film of the same name that also features Jane Wyman and Richard Egan. The film opens Sunday at the Rafael Theater in San Rafael.

'SOUTH PACIFIC'—The Novato Theater next Tuesday will start the Technicolor musical "South Pacific" with Rossano Brazzi and Mitzi Gaynor.

FILM ROUNDUP

'Pollyanna' Classic Coming To Rafael

By LES DARD

Here is what is on tap this weekend in the way of films:

RAFAEL THEATER

"Pollyanna" (Technicolor), which opens Sunday, on the San Rafael screen, is easily 1960's best family picture.

Based on Eleanor Porter's 1913 best seller, it sold more than a million copies, became a Broadway hit and a silent movie starring Mary Pickford.

Comes now Walt Disney, with $3,200,000, a squad of good actors, nostalgic Victorian settings and tells of a town filled with ornery citizens until Pollyanna, a poor little orphan, arrives to live with her rich Aunt Polly.

There was cranky Mrs. Snow (Agnes Moorehead), a nasty hermit (Adolphe Menjou), the bleating minister (Karl Malden) and many more.

But Pollyanna (Hayley Mills) taught them to play "the glad game"—finding something to be happy about no matter how dreary fortune became. Pollyanna plays this game for almost the entire length of this film and does it with such power that, by the end, the rich sourpuss aunt (Jane Wyman) and her admirer (Richard Egan) are melting in each other's arms and the town is wallowing in good will.

Now all this may sound like so much treacle. But believe me, it isn't. Scripter-director David Swift has caught the essence of a happier time in America.

Chief credit belongs to Miss Mills, a 13-year-old mugger, daughter of British actor John Mills. She breathes a freshness into her role which is an absolute delight.

I've already promised my daughter she can see "Pollyanna" again and again.

LARK THEATER

Now that the name Ingmar Bergman means something to devotees of foreign films, the distributors are giving us another look at some of his earlier works, to wit:

"Illicit Interlude," which tells of a ballerina (Mai Britt) who recalls, in flashback, the mid-summer emotional madness she went through with Alf Kjellin. Beautifully photographed, this film is something of a pagan feast for the senses.

SEQUOIA THEATER

"Portrait in Black" (color), starring Lana Turner and Anthony Quinn, is a drama of illicit passions heightened by murder. It opens Sunday in Mill Valley.

Miss Turner appears as the wife of shipping tycoon (Lloyd Nolan). Quinn, her lover, is also Nolan's doctor. And even though Nolan is dying, the couple decides to speed his demise.

Suspicions are thrown this way and that. Sandra Dee, as Miss Turner's stepdaughter, and John Saxon (Miss Dee's boy friend) cast some especially inquiring glances.

The story is set in San Francisco.

MOTOR MOVIES

Collete's famed story of love, "Gigi," returns Sunday.

Winner of the Academy Award for best film of the year (in CinemaScope and color), it is an utterly delightful film.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE AND FAIRFAX THEATER

"Some Like It Hot," starring Marilyn Monroe, Jack Lemmon and Tony Curtis, is being cofeatured with "Hole in the Head" at both theaters.

This trio, plus Pat O'Brien, Joe E. Brown and George Raft, turn back the clock to the late 1920s when people went to speakeasies and rival gangs gunned each other down.

Curtis and Lemmon play a pair of musicians who flee mobsters by disguising themselves as members of an all-girl band. Marilyn is the band's singer.

Estimate: Very funny.

NOVATO THEATER

"South Pacific," a $6,000,000 color epic is the new Novato feature.

As a stage play, it was a titan among musicals. As a movie, directed by Joshua Logan, it is a lavishly-made show.

Only the most diehard fans of the Mary Martin-Ezio Pinza team will complain about Hollywood's choices: Mitzi Gaynor and Rosano Brazzi, who have their alternately bitter and sweet romance before finding eternal happiness.

The Rodgers and Hammerstein songs and rowdy chanties are as delightful as ever.

MARIN THEATER

The funniest British import in many a month is a new satire titled "Expresso Bongo." Its star is Laurence Harvey, the male lead of "Room at the Top," and it opens Sunday on the Sausalito screen.

This comedy concerns a small-time agent (Harvey) and his rock and roll prodigy, Bongo Herbert (Cliff Richards). How Harvey manipulates the field in his roller coaster ride to the top makes for a film which is savage, frequently irreverent and always lively.

Estimate: Don't miss this one.

TAMALPAIS THEATER

Starting Sunday, "Anatomy of a Murder," strictly straight talk film based on the best-seller, will be brought back for a few days to the Anselmo screen. And if at times it emphasizes anatomy more than murder, it's still also one of the most engrossing courtroom dramas in many a year.

"Anatomy" tells of an Army officer (Ben Gazzara) who admits killing a man. He declares his victim had assaulted his wife (Lee Remick).

The suspense springs from the effort of defense attorney Jimmy Stewart to win freedom for his client.

Corte Madera Parking Lot Plan Vetoed

The Corte Madera Board of Adjustments Wednesday night turned down a request for a variance which would have allowed a parking lot near Redwood-Corte Madera Avenue intersection.

The lot, owned by J. B. Rice, lies between Don Hicks' Wilshire Service Station on the corner and the Princess Beauty Salon at 72 Corte Madera Avenue.

The public parking lot had the approval of Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow and Fire Chief Frank Nelson. It would have required a variance from the 50 feet mandatory between commercial and residential property. The beauty salon is operating under a non-conforming use permit on residential property.

Robert Troppman of 6 Key Largo applied for permission to convert his garage into a children's bedroom, leaving the property without a required garage or carport. The board returned his plans with the suggestion that he attempt to work out a carport.

A rear setback variance from 50 to 12 feet was granted the Paradise Drive Shopping Center, to be built on property of Wilbur Jones. The variance was granted in view of the fact a 60-foot drainage ditch separates the rear of the property from the nearest residential property.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

The Correct Way To Eat Mexican Hot Sauce Is To Keep Eating It

My respect for south-of-the-border food technique has risen by degrees from indifference to surprise to enthusiasm—thanks to the little dark-eyed lady known as Ramona whose insistence on recipe-perfect dishes is equal to that of the most temperamental chef.

Heretofore I had looked upon the essential qualifications of Mexican cooking as two in number—hot and hotter. Now at my age comes enlightenment. I no longer seem to perspire at the mere reading of a menu in Spanish and a tamale can be a gourmet's delight.

Incidentally, I find that there is a trick to eating hot sauce—at least it seems to work with me. The idea is not to get discouraged after the first gulp. Instead of giving up and trying to drown your tonsils with a glass of water, simply gasp a hoarse "Ole!" and pour more oil on the fire. Suddenly your throat is at peace and it will enjoy the full flavor.

This is sometimes known in Spanish as "allanamiento de la boca" which means that your mouth is quicker to recognize the value of what goes into it than what usually comes out.

Tonight and tomorrow night, Ramona's in San Rafael will have colorful atmosphere and fine crab tacos will be enhanced by the singing and guitar playing of troubador Raul Sanchez who not only does it in Spanish but in French and Italian.

THE YACHT DOCK in Sausalito, heretofore confined to the luncheon and cocktail trade, is now serving dinners. Menu includes seafood, chicken and steaks—prices from $2.50. Should have no trouble keeping the tables filled.

THE CALIFORNIAN is one of Eugene's new specialties. It's not another pancake but a hickory-smoked chopped sirloin wrapped in bacon and served with appropriate vegetables—one of the most popular dishes in the house.

Now there's a thought, Gene. How about a hickory-smoked pancake? Not like the ones I make on a Sunday morning after, but something that will blend with the maple syrup—not overcome it.

Suggested title: The Woodsman.

GAYELARKS OF MARIN on the Magnolia strip between Larkspur and Kentfield is a new venture of George and Alice Gay, formerly of San Francisco. It is already open for business—a continuation of Muriel's restaurant which was owned by Muriel Hoopes.

Plans call for regular and continuous hours of service from 7 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. for breakfast, lunch and dinner.

Dinner prices are very moderate; menu features steaks, chops, prime rib and daily specials.

IT OCCURS to me that the Rancho Nicasio is a good showoff place to take your out of town visitors who may be looking for a little different atmosphere.

A sort of rough diamond setting, it's a spot where casual ranchers intermingle with slicked up urbanites, where big Nick Kobseff may at one time be sizzling steaks in the kitchen and another greeting customers on the outside, where his partner Glenn Kerch still seems doubtful that he mixed you the right drink. Glenn, you know, learned his bartending the hard way and he's quite frank about his early booboos which, were they recorded in the bartender's manual, would provide some novel variations on mixology.

OPEN 24 HOURS a day, the Griddle at Fourth and Lincoln, San Rafael, a sort of crossroads for hungry people, never runs dry of customers.

The early shifts and fishermen start coming in about 4 a.m. for breakfast. Not so early risers drift in from two to four hours later. Come then the coffee drinkers and doughnut dunkers, overlapped by early lunchers who in turn are passed by the late lunchers.

More coffee and doughnuts in the p.m. followed by early diners, medium diners, late diners and late-late diners — then after-the-show snackers and late shift suppers. About then it's time for the early shifts and fishermen and . . .

Cuba Moving In On Sugar Plants

HAVANA (UPI)—The government today published a decree announcing the "intervention" of all three sugar mills owned by the Cuba-American Sugar Co. and all properties, belongings and rights of the company including its Havana headquarters.

The decree was signed by Premier Fidel Castro and Antonio Nunez Jiminez, president of the Institute of Agrarian Reform which is charged with taking over foreign-owned properties in Cuba.

The government already had announced plans to take over Delicacies and Chappara mills of the company worth an estimated 75 million dollars. Today a third mill, Mercedita in Pinar Del Rio, was added to the list.

A company spokesman said the Mercedita takeover was "news to me."

The Delicias and Chappara mills were declared under a "state of intervention" yesterday which meant they faced imminent confiscation — the first sugar producers to feel Castro's wrath for the recent cut in the U. S. sugar quota.

The owners had 24 hours remaining of a 48-hour ultimatum to show cause why the properties should not be totally confiscated.

They were accused of "creating an alarm" by preparing to abandon milling operations in Cuba in view of the present political situation. Nuna Gottardi, a company spokesman, said the charge was not true.

Tommygun-carrying militia were posted at both plants, located at Puerto Padre on the north coast of Oriente Province. Administrative offices were padlocked, bank funds frozen and records impounded.

The intervention was ordered by Capt. Antonio Nunez Jimenez, director of the Agrarian Reform Institute, who only last week returned from a tour of Communist Eastern Europe.

Club Requests Aid In Clearing Blocked Road

The Almonte Improvement Club yesterday called on the Marin County Board of Supervisors for assistance in unblocking Columbia Street.

The one-block street running between California and Morningsun Avenues in Mill Valley has been blocked by a felled tree.

John J. Bradley of 108 Morningsun Avenue, who admits to blocking the road, said today that as long as he paid initially for the road and he maintains it, he feels he can block it.

He said a sheriff's deputy told him about two months ago that he could block it even if he had to put a cement wall across it. This, said Bradley, was after someone in a car tried to push Bradley's two cars, parked in tandem, off the hill.

Bradley said that, with recent building in the area, the road is being torn up and vandals have broken windshields of both his cars.

Mrs. Donald J. Taylor of the Almonte Improvement Club said the club has been receiving complaints from residents about the barricade. Jerome F. Downs, chairman of the Almonte Sanitary District, said the district has had trouble getting equipment up the road to work on lines.

New Job Assigned

Ensign Frank Perry Greene, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Greene of 60 Harrison Street, Sausalito, recently was promoted to the billet of operations officer aboard the USS De Kalb County, landing ship (tank) 715. The ship, based in Long Beach, is completing a six-month tour of the Western Pacific, principally in the East China Sea and Formosa Straits.

NEWSPAPERS BOUNCE BACK WITH BARB

The Ross Valley Times and Peninsula Pelican, whose plant at 10 Bank Street in San Anselmo was padlocked from last Thursday until Monday by U. S. Internal Revenue agents, appeared as usual yesterday afternoon.

The plant was padlocked for failure to pay social security contributions for employees. Publisher Roger Esteves raised sufficient funds to lift the closing order Monday.

Neither Ross Valley Times nor Pelican made any mention of the padlocking. But prominently displayed at the top of page 1 in both papers was this:

Consumer Council Supporting Move Against Stamps

SACRAMENTO (AP) — State Consumer Counsel Helen Nelson of Mill Valley gave her support today to the efforts of some service station officials to end what she called the "dubious service" of giving trading stamps.

Mrs. Nelson expressed her support of the proposal in a letter to the legislative chairman of the California Federation of Service Stations, meeting here tomorrow to discuss the proposal made by some of its members.

"Customers will appreciate a decision to concentrate your costs and theirs on services more essential to proper functioning of their automobiles than is the 'giving' of trading stamps," she wrote Mario Duccini of Sacramento.

4% Wage Hike Due Sanitation Plant Men

Plant operators of the San Rafael Sanitation District will get 4 per cent wage increase, and property owners will pay higher taxes, sanitation commissioners decided yesterday.

The commissioners approved a budget of $161,800, which is about $20,000 more than last year. The new budget calls for a tax rate of 41 cents per $100 assessed valuation, a three-cent increase over last year's 38 cents. The rate includes 11 cents for bond redemption.

The bulk of the increase in cost is for construction. About $40,000 is set aside for continuation of the Second Street sewer line.

Students Request Pool In Project 17 Plans

Twenty Tamalpais High School students asked the Mill Valley Parks and Recreation Commission last night to include a swimming pool in Project 17.

The high school pool is usually overcrowded and is often full of elementary school children, the students declared.

They appeared at a special work session on the 17-acre Project 17 recreation area.

Alan Eshleman, student body vice president, said the project includes an area for senior citizens, a little league and semi-pro baseball fields and even a wading pool for tots. But, he said, all it has for teen-agers are tennis courts and the community center "and those aren't what you would really call teen-age facilities."

The swimming pool proposal was placed in the preliminary plans, to be provided "if feasible."

Charles P. Guichard, commission member, said: "We do need a swimming pool. It will cost money but people will have to pay for it in taxes."

The commission said it will not consider any part of the 17 acres to be used as parking for the rapid transit system station as had been proposed.

Members agreed to provide a lagoon near Camino Alto with a controlled water level. They agreed to provide one semi-pro baseball diamond and one little league diamond. An effort is to be made to keep the present baseball field intact.

The commission decided not to re-align the present drainage ditch which runs through the middle of the project, and to accommodate as many tennis courts as possible.

A public hearing on preliminary plans will be held by the planning commission Aug. 16, said engineer Stanley M. Bala.

School's Out Once More In San Rafael

About 1,050 youngsters in grades 4-11 wound up their summer school classes today at San Rafael High School.

Another 80 enrolled in science and mathematics and humanities seminars and public speaking classes will continue for another two weeks.

More than 100 projects of students in the elementary science classes were on display today, as well as the work of the arts and crafts classes.

Working with the science students to prepare the "miniature fair" were teachers Walter Benson and John Urton, "more able learner" consultant Robert Shore, and Thomas Kramer, a high school student laboratory assistant.

The students prepared such projects as a photosynthesis experiment with plants, a cross-section of a geological period, collection and classification of butterflies and insects.

Principal Ralph K. Hansen reported there had been "terrific enthusiasm" for the science classes. Elementary children also enjoyed an organized physical education program, including such things as learning tumbling skills, Hansen said.

A language program offering French, German, Spanish and Latin drew a lot of interest from pupils in grades 7-11.

Typing classes had more than 200 enrolled.

Fishermen Fined

Two East Bay men were each fined $35 for possession of undersized abalone by Judge David R. Baty of Northwest Judicial District in Point Reyes Station on Wednesday.

The two, Frank Gomez of Hayward and John Gomez of Oakland, were caught July 9 on the ocean shore near the McClure Ranch.

Demos Discuss Beefing Up Defense Fund

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy and W. Averell Harriman discussed today a proposal to ask Congress to vote an additional two billion dollars for defense purposes this year as a move to back up a hard foreign policy stand towards the Soviet Union.

Harriman, former governor of New York and onetime ambassador to Moscow, told a news conference in reply to questions there had been discussion of this.

But he said the details would have to come from Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee.

A reporter asked whether there had been any discussion between Harriman and Kennedy concerning "a two-billion-dollar supplemental appropriation for defense" at the congressional session scheduled to resume Aug. 8.

"Yes, but you will have to get that from him," Harriman replied.

Tomorrow, Kennedy will receive from Allen W. Dulles, Central Intelligence Agency director, the first of the secret foreign policy briefings President Eisenhower has authorized for the Republican and Democratic campaign-bearers.

Those Who Knew Him Will Remember Freeways Chief

One of the friendliest, happiest men we've ever known died this week. It is not usual for a man who spends his working days with designs, blueprints, slide rules, curve radii, concrete, and bridges to have a wide interest in people and things. Usually specialists such as highway engineers get so wrapped up in their work they haven't time or interest in much else.

Such was not the case with Bernard W. Booker. Everybody called him "Barney." He was interested in all sorts of things. He loved to be with people. He loved to dance and to talk, to argue and kid with friends.

This is the man who is credited with designing the freeway system for the Bay Area. Barney was convinced that the way to solve traffic congestion into and out of cities was to build multi-lane highways completely separated from interference of any other traffic.

As assistant state highway engineer in charge of the nine Bay Area counties, he was in a position to carry out the details of such a plan. Highway 101 freeway through Marin is one of those designed under his supervision.

A little more than a year ago he retired from the State Division of Highways after 38 years of service. His final year was interlaced with illness, but he had some time for fun too.

Barney has left behind him a monument in the form of an effective transportation system. But his greatest monument resides in the hearts and memories of the many men and women who worked with him and came into contact with him both in his official capacity and socially. They won't forget Barney Booker.

Tiny Troublemakers

Mosquitoes are pretty well under control in Marin compared to some parts of the country. But enough of them escape the ministrations of the mosquito control people to make them a minor nuisance.

The itchy bumps they raise demand scratching. Perhaps you have wondered why. It is not the "bite" which is so annoying. It's the injection of saliva which preceeds the blood-sucking ritual which causes the itching. This saliva contains an irritant which draws the blood to the surface and makes eating easy for this insect.

Mosquitoes are well known as carriers of various dreaded diseases such as malaria, yellow fever and epidemic encephalitis. Each of these is carried by a different variety of mosquito. In Marin we have the Culex, which could be potentially dangerous should the mysterious forces of Nature ever trigger an epidemic of encephalitis here.

However, today the only thing one need fear from a Marin County mosquito is the itchy "bite" which, though annoying, is rarely fatal.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

MONEY CAN'T REPLACE THEM

A 25-year-old lady in England was awarded $5,630 by a court because she lost her sense of smell and had her taste seriously impaired as a result of a skull fracture inflicted on her when a truck hit her car.

A monetary compensation, regardless of how generous, cannot make up for such a loss. All the money in the world can never replace even one of the five priceless senses of sight, hearing, taste, touch or smell.

Don't make the mistake of taking the blessings of body, mind and soul for granted. Keep ever aware of how much God loves you.

Set aside a few moments each day to reflect on at least one manifestation of His divine solicitude for you personally.

Add meaning to your gratitude to God by showing others something of the same loving concern that He displays towards you.

"A new commandment I give you . . . that as I have loved you, you also love one another." (John 13:34)

Thanks to You, O bountiful Father, for Your countless blessings to me.

HAL BOYLES COLUMN

Nothing Makes A Non-Starch Man Madder Than Starched Shirts

NEW YORK (AP)—Well, it happened again.

Yep, this morning.

The day started off swell. I hit the alarm clock—that mechanical bird in my boudoir—with the first flung shoe and it fell over and said "gleep."

The shining sun heralded the advent of another morning of challenge.

The weather was fine, the rent wasn't due, the cat wasn't scratching my daughter and I could hear my wife humming in the kitchen.

She still hums that old tune, "I'm Getting Sentimental Over You," and after 23 years of marriage I still wonder who she really has in mind.

Well, I got up and showered and the water was just the right temperature. And I shaved and the razor blade was sharp against the whiskers but didn't cut the skin.

The day looked better and better. I pulled on my socks and pants and shoes and started humming loud enough to be heard in the kitchen, "I'm getting sentimental over you-oo, too-oo."

Then it happened. Yes, it happened again.

I bent down and tugged a shirt from the drawer, removed it from its pristine cellophane and cardboard container, and started to don it.

Don it? It was like trying to buckle on armor plate. The shirt was stiff enough to stand on its tail. The cuffs as I fought my fists through them fought back with a white firmness.

I stalked into the kitchen and confronted my wife in majestic silence.

"What's the matter now — did you break a shoelace?" she asked.

"No. Starch!"

"Not starch!" Frances exclaimed. "Not starch again!"

"Yes, starch! Again . . . and again . . . and again!

"We have a new laundryman," said my wife. "He didn't know you don't like starch in your shirts."

"WE HAVE been fighting starch in our family for at least three generations," I said.

"Oh, dry up, Rover," said my wife. "What will you have for breakfast?"

"CALL UP THE laundry and buy all the starch they have. Cook it and put it on the table. I want to get rid of it all—once and forever.

"I'd rather eat starch than wear it."

Remodel Homes For Hospital

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

The bonds for the Marin County Hospital and Farm failed to pass because $13,000 a bed is too costly.

The instigators say it is the best that can be done, but as usual, where the state, or Santa Claus, or anybody beside themselves has to foot the bill, they have shown a distinct lack of imagination.

A better plan would be to purchase some large old homes around the county, and properly convert them. I was in such a place in Detroit for a week three years ago. The care was excellent. Many of the older people there were completely bedridden. Some had been there for years. The men were upstairs and the women were down.

Some were charges of the county, and some paid their fare. There were in all 30 beds there. The whole place could not have been worth more than $50,000. This makes the cost per bed $1666 — a far cry from $13,000 per bed.

Besides this saving such homes, at various places around the county, would have the advantage of being more accessible to the help, the doctors and the visitors.

Youths Friendly To Visitors

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Please allow me to express our appreciation and admiration to a group of teen-agers in your city, "The Road Runners Club."

On July 4 we were on the freeway (our first experience on it) entering the Golden Gate Bridge when we had a flat tire. We were trying to jack up the car, with a jack that wouldn't work, when three friendly, charming young men stopped behind us. They had a hydraulic jack and tire tools. They changed our tire in a few minutes.

We tried to pay them but they refused to accept it. We tried to get their names but were told that they belonged to the Road Runners Club, a group of hot-rodders trying to prove to people that teen-agers like to help people on the highways.

They certainly proved their point to us.

I hope that the people of your city appreciate the activities of this group of young men for you will never know how much we appreciated their act and what a warm friendly feeling it gave us toward your city and all of the Golden Gate Cal. area.

Please express our gratitude to the club, members and to their parents for this kind act to travelers.

Powers First Yank Tried As Spy On Reds

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign Editor

On Aug. 17, Francis G. Powers achieves the dubious distinction of becoming the first American to be tried in open Soviet court on spy charges.

The official Soviet news agency Tass announced the trial date and said the case had been "accepted" by the "military collegium of the Supreme Court of the U.S.S.R." — a court usually reserved for high ranking officers only.

Thus, on his birthday, the 31-year-old pilot whose U-2 high-altitude reconnaisance plane was shot down over Sverdlovsk last May 1, becomes an individual pawn in a show trial whose primary objective will be to further the Soviet campaign labelling the United States an aggressor nation.

THERE WAS NO indication of the defense which Powers will be permitted after 108 days in the hands of Soviet interrogators.

Conviction could result in a prison sentence of from seven to 15 years or death before a firing squad.

A grim history lies behind the three-judge collegium which is Soviet Russia's highest military court.

The late dictator Josef Stalin used it as his favorite instrument to eliminate possible rivals.

His favorite prosecutor was the late Andrei Vyshinski, who afterward became Stalin's chief cold war spokesman before the United Nations and in world councils.

IN THREE spectacular trials in 1936 1937 and 1938 Stalin purged the Communist Party of most of the leading "Old Bolsheviks." They were the giants of early Communism, but one and all, they "confessed" to the crimes of treason and sabotage as charged by Stalin.

They included former Premier A. I. Rykov, and two former presidents of the Communist International, Gregory Zinoviev and Nikolai Bukharin.

United Press International's veteran Moscow manager attended those trials and recalls hearing Vyshinski order the military supreme court to "shoot the mad Fascist dogs." Shapiro adds, "Most of the members of Lenin's central committee then were liquidated."

Diplomats, cabinet ministers, economic experts and honored soldiers disappeared one after the other, victims of Stalin's terror apparatus. Comparatively few of them met their fate in public.

In 1937, Stalin had Marshal M. N. Tukhachevsky, vice commissar of war and civil war veteran, and seven other generals tried and executed in secret. Later, some of the judges also were liquidated.

So sweeping were the purges that years later Nikita Khrushchev revealed they left the Soviet Union's defense completely unprepared for the German onslaught.

Beyond the date and the court that will try him, little else of the Powers case is known. U. S. officials have not been permitted to see him since his capture on May 1.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

It's hard to get angry at Yogi Berra, New York Yankees catcher, but Manager Casey Stengel boiled one spring day when with a man on first and second, nobody out, and two runs needed to tie, he ordered Yogi to bunt.

Instead, Mr. Berra hauled off and socked the ball all the way to the center field monument.

"Didn't you hear me order you to bunt?" yelled Stengel to Berra, puffing happily on third base.

"Honest, I meant to," alibied Yogi, "but just then I seen that center fielder creeping in on me."

At the Richelieu restaurant one evening a conceited TV personality suffered a severe coughing spell. "Why," worried a lady a few tables away, "doesn't somebody slap him on the back?"

"We can't do that," explained the headwaiter. "If we do, he'll keep coughing all night!"

Another Friendly, Determined Man Takes Over Hamilton Command

The other evening we dropped in at the Hamilton Air Force Base Officers' Club to say goodbye to our friend, Col. George Ceuleers.

By "we" I do not imply the editorial usage, but am including my wife, Lucille, both of us having been invited by Uncle George to his farewell shindig before he leaps off for Washington, D. C., for his new assignment.

As a connoisseur of parties —having been on one since about the age of 20 — I can say this was one of the best. I must also admit I have never been on joke-telling terms with so much brass and gold braid at one time, even though I number among my acquaintances a couple of congressmen, a former state assemblyman and any number of Kentucky colonels.

ALTHOUGH THE OLD MAN had been officially relieved of his command several hours earlier at a full dress review of men and planes, there was no doubt in anyone's mind at the party that he would remain head man on the base until his actual departure. This fact was accepted by everyone, including the new base commander, Col. Harvey Henderson, and the deputy base commander, Col. Benjamine Cassiday, both of whom were present.

As a matter of fact, when a sweet young guest joined the group of three full colonels to ask innocently who would be in charge in case of an emergency, George removed the cigar from his teeth long enough to tell her, in all good humor, "Don't worry, I'll take charge."

"And he would, too," said a general standing nearby.

A DRIVING, forceful personality who knows when he is right—and is, most of the time—George walks in shoes which will be no easy job to fill. Following him on a job would be something akin to taking over the White House after George Washington and Abraham Lincoln had held down the presidency jointly.

For what my opinion is worth, however, I have a sneaking hunch that Harvey Henderson is the man to do the job.

A lean Texan who insists he is not an Okie since he will only have one mattress on top of his car when he drives his family out from the East later this month (Okies, he insists, always drive with two mattresses), the young colonel has been in the Air Force since 1941 following his graduation from Edinburgh, Tex., Junior College.

HIS ENTRY into the service shows, I think, both determination and imagination.

Then a gangling youngster of only five-feet, eight-inches and barely tipping the scales at 128 pounds, he told me the Air Force doctor actually laughed out loud when he walked into his office the day he signed up.

"He was laughing at my pot belly," Henderson said. It seems the ambitious young man had eaten several pounds of bananas, washed down with quarts of water, in a heroic effort at making the necessary poundage.

"I WAS STILL a couple of pounds under," he recalled. "But the doctor figured if I wanted to get in that badly, the Air Force could fatten me up enough to make everybody happy."

He has, incidentally, gained considerable weight since that day. I have the feeling he has also gained a lot of the qualities necessary to make a first-rate Old Man.

Behind a genuine, affable smile lurks the look of a man who means what he says. My friends at Hamilton can never say I didn't warn them.

Strong Pressures On Rockefeller To Accept Vice President Nod

CHICAGO — You can't be sure the unexpected may still not happen at this Republican convention. The unexpected would be the nomination of Gov. Nelson Rockefeller as Richard Nixon's running mate.

The reason it is not to be dismissed is that some of the most influential GOP leaders are making an all-out effort to get him to say yes.

There is no doubt in my mind that what most Republicans most want at this time is a Nixon-Rockefeller ticket and that what most Democrats most fear is a Nixon-Rockefeller ticket — unless it be a Rockefeller-Nixon ticket, which everyone knows is not in the making.

THE RENEWED pressure to get Rockefeller to take second place stems from two developments:

The bold and unexpected decision by Sen John Kennedy to invite Lyndon Johnson to run with him, plus Republican awareness that this creates the strongest possible Democratic slate.

Senator Johnson's willingness—as a service to his party and against his own real wishes—to accept the vice presidential nomination.

Two weeks ago Nixon had narrowed his choice of running mates to Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge and Sen. Thruston Morton of Kentucky, chairman of the Republican National Committee.

But the placing of Johnson on the Democratic ticket—instead of Symington or Humphrey or Jackson or Loveless—adds a new element.

ONE THING is clear. Republican leaders are not going to give up easily on Rockefeller. Here is the case which they are making to Rockefeller's closest political associates:

1. If elected President, Nixon is committed to using his Vice President in vital jobs at the highest level of government in Washington and abroad.

2. As a member of the Cabinet and of the National Security Council, Rockefeller would be in a position to address his views to the point where they would be more likely to produce action than if he was communicating them to the press in Albany.

3. Isn't Rockefeller's interest largely in national and international affairs? If this is so, doesn't the vice presidency today, as it has developed during the past eight years, offer even more rewarding public service than the New York governorship?

4. The governorship of New York is a stepping stone to the presidency. But so is the vice presidency and right now has proved to be the best possible ladder to the presidential nomination.

Something more than arguments is needed to give their case a fair chance of winning. That something more is a substantial meeting of minds between Nixon and Rockefeller on the platform bearing on defense and economic growth.

A Nixon-Rockefeller agreement on the platform could bring a Nixon-Rockefeller ticket within reach.

Tax Appraiser's Appointment Hit

Appointment of Mrs. Elaine Barrett Guthrie of Ross as a state inheritance tax appraiser for Marin County was protested yesterday in a letter to State Controller Alan Cranston by the Marin County Real Estate Board.

The letter, signed by Frank Perachiotti of Novato, board chairman, said directors of the realty board unanimously voted a resolution of protest, on grounds that the position is technical and complex and that Mrs. Guthrie is not qualified.

It said the position is "of significant importance," that the courts are accustomed to working with people of proved competence, and that factual information of Mrs. Guthrie's competence is lacking.

"On the contrary," continues the letter, "the reports indicate her experience in the field of inheritance tax appraisals has been limited to brief service in the office of the newly appointed Marin County inheritance tax appraiser, Mr. Lee Holman, who, himself, had no prior experience to transmit to her."

Mrs. Guthrie is described as "no doubt an estimable person and a fine lady" and by implacation one who "did some routine, enthusiastic or effective campaigning for a successful candidate."

The board knows, according to the letter, that "there are in Marin County a number of well-qualified persons who could have served with credit . . . From this group a thoughtful appointment could have been made."

Membership of the board, the letter says, is "appalled and thoroughly angered" over the appointment "that appears to be entirely political and not in the public interest."

Mrs. Guthrie is the wife of Dr. Joseph A. Guthrie, and the mother of three children. She is a graduate of Stanford University and has been editor of a trade journal and political science department assistant at Holyoke College, Mass. When her appointment was announced July 8, Mrs. Guthrie said she has taken a course in appraising in addition to working with Holman since his appointment a year ago.

Navy Probes Liquor Case In Secret

Agents of the Customs Service and Federal Alcohol-Tobacco Tax unit who discovered 600 bottles of untaxed liquor in the Kentfield home of a retired admiral appeared as witnesses yesterday at a secret Navy investigation into the case at Treasure Island.

The agents testified how they found the liquor behind a locked door in the home of Adm. William L. Erdman at 13 Arroyo Drive on July 1.

The liquor had been brought into the United States from Guam without taxes paid on it and without a customs declaration, they testified.

The admiral retired March 31 at Guam as chief of naval forces in the Marianas.

It was learned that the testifying agents refused to say who tipped them off about the admiral's liquor.

The admiral was not present at the hearing. His attorney, Richard J. MacLaury of Belvedere, said there was no indication whether his client would ever be summoned by the investigators.

Other officers elected for the 1960-61 term are Sam Weinstein, vice president; Fred Sumner, treasurer; Mrs. Walter K. Wilson, recording secretary and Carl W. Spring, corresponding secretary.

Blind Cowboy, 81, Graduated At Guide Dogs

An old-time cowboy who lost his sight in rough riding accidents went into the world from school today with a new pair of eyes—those of his golden retriever dog, Flora.

Joseph F. Stephens, a lively 81, was graduated from Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., after completing a rigorous four-week training course shared with Flora at the school on Los Ranchitos Road north of San Rafael. She is his fourth dog guide.

First warning of approaching blindness came on an Oregon hunting trip in 1899 when a "flicker" in his eyes spoiled his aim. Later he realized that mishaps of his cowpunching work had ruptured a blood vessel behind his eyes.

Two years before he'd taken a flying spill from his horse while bolting up a hill to head off a herd. The horse stumbled and crashed on him. A year later he was thrown and dragged far enough to kill most men.

Six years after he noticed that his "shooting eye" was gone he found himself totally sightless. He went to Salem's School for the Blind to learn such things as Braille, chair caning and finding his way with guidance of a cane. He also learned that he had a gift of poetry.

To earn his living he went to Los Angeles and worked 10 years as a corner newsboy. During this time he married a friend from the Blind School, Jessie Stout, a "sighted" employee. They observe their 47th wedding anniversary this month at their present home in Paradise, Butte County, where Stevens bought, lived on and sold three farms before building their present home.

He canes chairs, fishes, and recites his own verses.

ALONG MARIN'S SPORTS TRAIL

By JIM GILMARTIN

This 'Last Man' Is Going In Style; None Of That Roughing It For Me

ALAS, the "Last Man" found some antlers—but were they from a buck or a bull?

I had an awful dream last night. That enemy planes were headed this way, loaded with H-Bombs. And my boss came running into the office screaming: "Gilmartin! We've selected you to be the last man on earth."

"But, boss . . ."

"Shutup, you fool and start packing. Go off into the wilderness and hide in some bushes. The farther the better."

"But, gee, boss . . ."

"Get a move on. And don't take too much gear. We want you to suffer," he sneered.

"And one last thing, Gilmartin. Keep away from snoopy reporters. You may be the last man on THIS earth, but who knows, there may be some roving scribes from other planets."

Well, you can imagine the thoughts that whirled through my mind. First, what to bring? Better take along Elvis, our pet dachshund. He'll come in handy for flushing out wild game.

THEN, OH YES, the wife! There's ironing, hut cleaning, sewing and cooking to be done.

If I'm going to be the last man on earth I'm going in style.

One "last man" we heard about apparently remembered his Boy Scout lesson: "Be Prepared." He packed such things as pen-knives, an axe, salt, twine and a few other incidentals.

Having read of how well these things worked for him, we decided to omit them from our check list.

FIRST WE decided we'd be the first man to disprove the "You can't take it with you" theory and withdrew all $17 from our bank account. Of this, we used $15 for a down payment on a huge moving van.

Then we started packing for the survival test: Dysentery tablets, 12 cases of beer, 18 cartons of cigarettes, springs, mattresses and plenty of blankets (I read somewhere that it gets cold out in the wilderness); a machine gun and plenty of ammunition (I hear the bears are pretty frightening at nights); lanterns, plenty of matches (I was the clumsiest Scout in history).

FISH HOOKS and plenty of leaders (both my wife and dog are brunettes and their hair can't serve the purpose); pots, pans, glasses, cups and plates.

Four cases of bourbon, four of vodka and four of gin—plus a generous supply of mix; coffee and tea; a still; plenty of vegetable seeds; two head of cattle, one of each kind, silly.

Hammers, saw and nails; dysentery tablets; soap and shaving gear; roll-on deodorant.

A Boy Scout manual on what to do, and a particular series of newspaper articles on what not to do; a transistor (to find out how other teams besides the Giants died.)

A typewriter to record this historic journey (but on the other hand, who's gonna read it?; throw out the typewriter).

"WELL, THAT about does it," we thought as we started up the truck and headed off into the wilderness.

Just then, however, the boss came running up the street screaming, "Forget it, Gilmartin. We've just read in the papers where it's no use. You can't survive in the wilderness. Stay here with the rest of us and take it like a man."

"Oh, yeh," we hollered back, surveying our tidy little "survival kit" in the back of the van, "that's what you think. Bye-bye, doomed world. Wilderness, here I come."

That was when the dream ended. The boss shook my shoulder and snapped, "Sleeping on the job, eh? Why, if I had my way you'd be the last man . . ."

I know, boss, I know.

GORDON TOVANI of Kentfield, the bare-footed placekicker who recently tried out with the Oakland Raiders, called in this morning to report he has NOT been released from the American Football League club.

Explained Tovani: "After I left camp I got a call from the Raiders saying they placed me on re-call and had not given me my unconditional release. I am still under contract to them. The Raiders phoned me again yesterday and told me they expected to recall me sometime before their first game in August. So, I'm just waiting."

McCormick To Face Pirates In Opener

Pittsburg's National League leading Pirates invade San Francisco tonight for a three-game series under far different circumstances than when they arrived last month.

Then the Giants were battling them for first place. Now they're battling to get out of the second division.

Then the Pirates whipped the Giants three straight, June 14-16, to drop them four games off the pace. That brought the firing of Bill Rigney as manager with Tom Sheehan taking over.

The toboggan ride continued for San Francisco with a fall into fifth place, but they'd like nothing more than to wallop the Pirates.

The first pitching job falls to young left-hander Mike McCormick. One of the most effective of the San Francisco hurlers this season, the 21-year-old boasts a 9-5 record with a 2.51 ERA.

Facing him will be veteran lefty Harvey Haddix (6-5).

Robin Roberts snapped the Giants' winning streak at three games yesterday, spinning a masterful one-hitter for a 3-0 victory. Before that he had lost two and won only once against San Francisco this year.

Only Felipe Alou's infield single kept the 33-year-old Roberts from a no-hitter. And there was controversy on that one. With two out in the fifth, Alou hit a bouncer. Third baseman Joe Morgan stepped back, grabbed the ball, but fell and could make no play.

Philadelphia Manager Gene Mauch and Morgan thought it should have been an error. Roberts didn't dispute the call.

Neither, naturally, did Manager Sheehan of the Giants who said, "I don't see how they could call it anything but a hit. I just wished we'd gotten more of them."

Of Felipe, the manager said, "If I could just get him hitting .280 or .290, this would be a pretty good looking ball club. He might just get started. He's young, an outfielder, and a good one."

The outfielder from the Dominican is hitting just .193.

Philadelphia beat Jack Sanford in the third inning with three runs on four hits. Tony Gonzalez, Pancho Herrera and Clay Dalrymple each singled home a run. Dalrymple's came off reliever Stu Miller, who was followed by John Antonelli and Bud Byerly.

23 Veterans Report To 49er Camp Today

MORAGA (AP) — Twenty-three San Francisco 49ers veterans were due in the St. Mary's camp today to complete Coach Red Hickey's training squad.

The coach gave the morning for formalities and physical examinations with a full squad workout scheduled in the afternoon.

Hickey began pairing the rookie squad yesterday as he released four hopefuls — quarterback Charlie Boxhold of Maryland and Gary Campbell from Whittier, guard Jim Williams from North Carolina College and linebacker Ivory Jones from Montana.

Again the standouts in practice, including a 50-minute scrimmage were Dan Colchico from San Jose State at defensive end, Bobby Wasden from Auburn at defensive end and linebacker, Gordon Kelley from Georgia at linebacker and Wally Bavaro from Boston College at offensive tackle.

Colchico at defensive left end and Bavaro at right tackle on offense staged some head knocking duels as a feature of the drill.

Release of both Boxhold and Campbell left Bob Waters from little Presbyterian College as the only rookie quarterback with Y. A. Tittle and John Brodie reporting with the veterans

Coach Hickey said he planned to return Hugh McElhenny to the right halfback spot instead of working him at the flanker halfback post as he did much of last year.

MRGC PICNIC IS SOLD OUT

He said all 1200 tickets had been sold for the popular outing at the club grounds at Pt. San Quentin.

SNEAD ONLY ONE STROKE BACK

Palmer Takes Narrow Lead Into Second Round Of PGA

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Arnold Palmer headed for an unprecedented triple crown today as he led the 42nd PGA championship into the second round by a single stroke.

After being forced to birdie the last two holes to win the Masters, and coming from seven strokes off the pace to take the national open, the Pennsylvania strong boy said: "It's nice to be out in front for once."

The Ligonier lad blazed a 34-33—67 over Firestone Country Club's 7,165-yard par-70 layout, with four birdies and a bogey He nosed out veteran Sam Snead who snared this championship 18 years ago and twice since.

The performances of the two long hitters featured the first day of this extravaganza in which the biggest PGA field in history is playing on the tournament's longest course for the biggest purse before the largest gallery. The first round's paid attendance was 10,225.

The long layout, its narrow fairways bordered by heavy roughs and crossed by streams and ponds, took a heavy talent toll, especially in the ranks of the club professionals for whom the showpiece was fashioned.

Only nine of the top 32 scorers are nontourists, the moneymakers taking command of the first eight places and 15 of the leading 18. Just how many of the teaching pros will be around after today's cut to the low 90 — with the cutoff slated at scores near 151 — is problematical.

Palmer put together his round early and then let the starting field of 184 fire at his 67. Snead, 48, bothered by a hooking driver, came in late and made the biggest bid. Invited into the press tent for a chat with the scribes, the West Virginia slammer drawled: "Can't do it right now. Have to practice before I cool off."

Joining Palmer and Snead as the only par-breakers were Paul Harney, the slim tourist from Worcester, Mass., and veteran Freddie Haas of New Orleans, each with a 69. Bracketed at par 70 were Doug Sanders of Miami Beach, Fla., who tied for the runner-up spot last year; Don Fairfield, 31, of Casey, Ill.; Dan January, 30, of Dallas, and sweetswinging Ken Venturi of Palo Alto, Calif.

Three club pros huddled into a 10-way tie at 71. The top teachers were John O'Donnell of Baltimore, Bob Harris of Winnetka, Ill., and Ed Griffiths, former Ohio Open champion from Youngstown. With them were such tourists as long-hitting George Bayer, Al Besselink, and former champion Jim Ferrier.

LOOSE COURSE

The course was loose for the first round, with the tees well to the front and the pins in open spots, to hurry the big field to a before-dark finish.

But Ferrier, native Australian, said he has posted his 71: "This place was real friendly and probably will be for the second round, too. But they'll take the chains off Saturday, and this monster will wake up and roar back. Those last two rounds will be no picnic."

Bronco Baseball Playoff Tonight

Screeno Jobs Help Bucs Whip Bums, Boost League Lead

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Hal Smith is the Babe Ruth of the Los Angeles Coliseum. The Pittsburgh catcher plays screeno with the man who invented the game. Smith hit two more over the screen last night in Pittsburgh's 4-1 victory over the Dodgers. The pair ran his season total of nine. Six of them have been hit at the Coliseum, four in the last two days.

As a result of Smith's home runs and a five-hit pitching job by Vern Law who won his 12th, the Pirates again lead Milwaukee by 1½ games.

St. Louis gave the Bucs a helping hand in an afternoon game at Milwaukee where they broke the Braves' seven-game winning streak 9-4. A six-run rally in the sixth inning helped Larry Jackson win his 12th.

Philadelphia's Robin Roberts threw a one-hitter, blanking San Francisco 3-0. The only hit was an infield single by Felipe Alou with two out in the fifth.

Bob Anderson pitched the last place Chicago Cubs to an 8-1 victory over Cincinnati in the other National League game.

There was only one game Thursday in the American League. Detroit built up enough early lead to offset Washington's late homerun power and defeated the Senators 9-5.

Pittsburgh scored two in the third at Los Angeles on Roberto Clemente's single with the bases loaded. Smith hit No. 8 in the fourth and No. 9 in the seventh, both off Johnny Podres.

51,193 CROWD

Another big crowd of 51,193 saw the series finale. A total of 153,932 fans saw the three games, boosting the Dodgers' home attendance to 1,433,729 for 46 home dates.

It was Law's third victory over the Dodgers and his third complete game against them in three starts. The right-hander had gone the route six straight times at the Coliseum since he was knocked out May 1, 1958.

The Cardinals, blanked Wednesday night by Warren Spahn, were held to one hit in the first five innings, but they rose up and chased Carl Willey in the big sixth. Bill White's two-run double with the bases loaded opened the gates. Jackson needed help from Lindy McDaniel when the Braves threatened in the seventh.

Pinch-Hitters

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UPI)—The USO had a big party planned for crewmen of the USS Macon while the ship was anchored off Buffalo harbor in Lake Erie, but bad weather cancelled the sailors' shore leave.

So GI's from nearby Army Nike bases were invited over instead and they finished all 2,000 of the sandwiches and every crumb of the cake intended for the Navy.

PINS AND PEOPLE

Bowling Great Nagy To Exhibit In Marin

Steve Nagy, colorful member of the Brunswick Advisory Staff of Champions, will appear at San Rafael's Country Club Bowl in San Rafael next Wednesday in a special bowling exhibition, it was announced today by Manager Dave Rivera.

He will conduct a clinic starting at 10 a.m., follow it up with special free instructions at 2 p.m. and wind up the full day at 8:30 p.m. in a special match game against a top Bay Area bowler, yet to be selected, Rivera said.

The 45-year-old St. Louis bowler, whose explosive style is a spectator favorite, is a member of the current BPAA national match game and ABC Tournament championship team.

Always a threat in the toughest competition, Nagy was a pacesetter in last season's ABC Tournament in Syracuse. He rolled games of 244, 227 and 258 for a 729 series to lead the St. Louis Falstaff's to the team title on a 3,210 total, third highest in ABC history. Nagy finished second in the individual all-events with 2,033, a scant 10 pins behind the winner.

That performance by Nagy was second only to his brilliant play in the 1952 ABC Tournament when he paired with Johnny Klares for 1,453 pins in the doubles event to smash by 38 pins a record that had stood unchallenged for 19 years. He also won the coveted all-events title, amassing 2,065 pins, and led his Cleveland Radiart squad to the team all-events championship.

Steve makes a habit of setting records in the ABC. His two-year average of 224 for the 1951 and 1952 tournaments and his 1951 to 1953 three-year average of 221 still stands. He has averaged 204 in the past 11 ABC Tournaments.

GREENBRAE LANES' 540 Scratch Trio League produced some more fancy scoring in its latest outing. Keith Morris set the pace with an 852 total on games of 234, 203, 206 and 209. Chico Valsecchi seconded the motion with an 852 on 213-234-194-209. Elbie Bean came in at 779 on 203, 185, 186 and 205.

AL CHARNEY of San Rafael recently hit the big money in the Gigantic Singles play in San Francisco. The young roller scored games of 210, 202, 197, 222 and 184 and, with a handicap of 126, totalled 1141.

JERRY PEARCE, who carries a 160 average in Greenbrae leagues, placed second in a recent Reno tournament with a six-game total of 1382, including handicap. He went way over his head with games of 172, 203, 234, 225, 225 and 163.

ED JOHNSON hit the range for a 603 three-gamer in the Goof Balls League at Greenbrae.

DON STEVENS riddled the pins to the tune of 641 on lines of 215, 200 and 226 Sunday to pace Greenbrae's team to a 2-1 victory over Santa Rosa in the North Bay All-Star Traveling League. Others on the winning team were Forry Wilson, Dick Leal, Gene Reiman and Fredd Wentworth.

BILL DAWSON scored a 554 series and Sylvia DeVere a 199 solo and 487 total in the Mixed Mates League at Greenbrae.

Li'l League Pal Honored

Ben Badaracco, longtime San Anselmo resident and youth activities leader, was guest of honor Wednesday night at an appreciation dinner in recognition for his service to the San Anselmo Little League and Junior League and his major part in raising funds to enable the start this year of the Hub City's Senior League for 15-16-17-year-olds.

Two dozen San Anselmo youth baseball officials and managers attended the dinner at West End Villa, San Rafael, and heard League President Marston Thall describe Badaracco as a "man who has proved himself a real friend of the kids in our town, and a civic leader."

In accepting an engraved trophy, Badaracco declared his philosophy for youth sports, "I don't care who wins or loses; I just want to see as many kids as possible get into the game and play."

He pledged his continued help and pointed to the need for improving recreational facilities in San Anselmo.

A 33-year resident of Marin, Badaracco was assistant manager of the Wells Fargo American Trust Company office in San Anselmo until transferred recently to the bank's Head Office in San Francisco.

Nicasio Schedules Sunday Afternoon Softball Series

A 12-week series of Sunday afternoon softball games at Nicasio Town Square will begin this weekend when the Rancho Nicasio team plays host to a strong Petaluma squad starting at 12:30 o'clock, it was announced yesterday by Nick Kobseff of Rancho Nicasio.

He said several Bay Area teams have been invited to play the Nicasio team during the next three months. "We feel the crowds who visit Nicasio on weekends will enjoy these games," Kobseff said.

Showdown In A.L.; Yanks Vs. Chisox

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The first showdown series of the year opens tonight at Yankee Stadium where the New York Yankees, nursing a one-game lead, take on the second place Chicago White Sox in the first of four games.

It will be White Sox speed and sound pitching against the Yanks' home-run power and wobbly pitching in the series that overshadows other doings in the American League. They will play one game tonight, tomorrow afternoon, and two Sunday. The Yanks hold a 7-4 season edge winning the last seven from the Sox.

Most of the league spent yesterday on the road, but Detroit managed to climb into a fifth-place tie with Washington by beating the Senators 9-5 in the only game played.

For the opener at Yankee Stadium, Manager Casey Stengel has Bob Turley, 6-1, ready to oppose Early Wynn, 40, at 5-7. Saturday's pitchers probably will be Whitey Ford, 6-5, for the Yanks and either Herb Score, 2-3, or Bob Shaw, 8-8, for the Sox. In the Sunday double-header, Stengel has Eli Grba, 1-0, and Jim Coates, 9-1, or Bobby Shantz, 1-2, to oppose Billy Pearce, 8-5, and either Score or Shaw, whoever does not work Saturday.

Ex-Giant Great Bobby Thomson Released By O's

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles recalled from Miami today Wes Stock, a right-hand pitcher, and let go Bobby Thomson, who thrilled the baseball world in 1951 with one hit.

Thomson hit a home run in the ninth inning, scoring two New York Giants ahead of him, and won the rubber game with Brooklyn for the National League pennant.

The Giants traded him to Milwaukee in 1954, and the Braves traded him back in 1957. Since then he played for the Chicago Cubs and Boston Red Sox. The Orioles signed him as a free agent July 2.

S.R. Softballers Blast Soldiers

Led by Sid Walker's two-hit, shutout pitching, for five innings, the McPhail Co. softball team of San Rafael blasted Fort Baker, 17-4 last night at Ft. Baker. Ed Langen pitched the final two innings.

With Langen leading the way with three hits, the McPhail men blasted 18 safeties to down the soldiers. Following Langen were John Brookman, Ron Derrington, Roy Elliston, Frank McConnell, Bob Thompson and Nolan Wilson each with two hits.

McPhails is scheduled to compete in the San Anselmo Invitational Tournament starting July 28. Other teams invited include James Trucking of Petaluma, Sohner Tree Service of San Anselmo, Presidio of San Francisco, and the Hamilton Air Force Base Defenders.

Cop Enjoys Fine Lake Fishing; Whoppers Taken At Monterey Bay

STEVENS

Howdy, folks! When a catcher of criminals becomes catcher of fish it is worth a mention. We just received a card from Police Lieutenant Bud Meyer stating: "I am up in Tuolumne Meadows, Yosemite, fishing. We have had very good luck. I have caught limits of brook trout up to 18 inches and none under 12 inches. Best luck was in Evelyn Lake (pack-back lake). The lake has an elevation of 10,500 feet. Bud."

We congratulate Bud Meyer and envy him a bit, too.

An unusual report came in on Tuesday of some of the largest salmon of this or any year being taken on Sunday in Monterey Bay. Manny Hernandez called to make the report. We can trust Manny, so are happy to repeat his words: "Not an awful lot of fish were taken by the party boats out of Monterey," he stated, "but I never saw such whoppers. I saw unloaded and carried off the various sportfishing boats at least 30 salmon that would run all the way from 35 to 42 pounds."

THAT'S GOOD news, we claim. And it's good news that, while the fish aren't so hefty, it would seem many more of them are being landed outside our own back door. Harold Boenner, of Lee Anderson's Bait Shop in Oakland, called to tell us of the boat Sea Bee, coming in with nine limits of salmon to 11 pounds on Monday, and the Lucky Day docking with 17 salmon to 12 pounds and 20 streamlined Spanish mackerel. That was on Tuesday. The Sea Horse netted 21 salmon to 16 pounds on Monday and had 23 to 13 pounds on Tuesday. We judge it was as good or even better on Wednesday off Pedro Point where most of the action was had this week. We listen to our Fishermen's band on the Halicrafter and arrived at that conclusion by hearing the various skippers boasting of their catches.

BASS TROLLING continues to attract a great many anglers from both sides of the bay. There has been no slowdown in what is perhaps the longest, finest run of stripers around Alcatraz Island we have ever had. Boenner reported the R.S.P. unloading limits for all aboard from eight to 12 pounds; the Sea Bee had eight limits to 12 pounds also. The boat Pat and Lil came to dock with four limits to 12 pounds, the Harbor Rockett displayed eight limits to 10 pounds and the Troller had seven limits to 14 pounds.

That was on Tuesday. On Monday, the Troller came to port with six limits to 25 pounds.

THE WELL-KNOWN Johnny Tank tried his luck from the beach at Fleischhacker on Tuesday and took his legal three from eight to 12 pounds.

LATE AFTEROON trolling continues from good to excellent in the Upper San Pablo Bay, around Buoy 10 downstream from Crockett, and up to the Black Buoy off Port Costa in the Carquinez Strait upstream.

DEEP SEA rockfishing is at its best of the season at present. Lots of lings coming in from Santa Cruz, Monterey, Princeton by the Sea and Bodega Bay.

Marin Kids Named For Colt Tourney

An All-Star team composed of outstanding players in the North Bay Colt League has been selected to participate in the Colt Northern California District Tournament at Redding next week, it was announced yesterday.

The Northern California Tournament at Redding will open next Thursday and end on July 30. Winner will advance to the Regional Tournament at Pocatello, Ida., early in August, and the winner there will play in the Colt World Series in Ontario, Calif., late in August.

The North Bay All-Stars will be managed by Robert Selna of Mill Valley and coached by Ray Maher of Corte Madera. The squad includes Fred Mack, David Perlis and Jack Martin of Mill Valley; Jim Corriea, Peter Belew and Bob Overmyer of Novato; Ray Maher, Ken Bowerman, Jim Purtell and Joe Weis of Corte Madera; Gary Crowe, Charles Hagle, Jim Hardina, Don Madronich and Henry Stiefel of Sebastopol.

Oakland Switches Tony Teresa To Right Half Spot

SANTA CRUZ (UPI) — Coach Eddie Erdelatz of the Oakland Raiders, in a surprise move yesterday brought Tony Teresa, former San Jose State quarterback, up into the first string right half berth.

Teresa, 185-pounder, was a split-T quarterback on the Hartnell College Little Rose Bowl team in 1953 and was named All-Coast at San Jose in 1954. He has two years of pro experience with Vancouver.

Teresa has been playing a deep back spot on defense. Erdelatz said the move was made so the versatile Salinas youth could have a variety of experience.

Road Fund Plans Gain Agreement

Tentative agreement on a formula for division among cities of money Marin County may allocate to an "urban thoroughfare plan" was reached at a second meeting yesterday of city and county officials.

But it was decided to meet again next Thursday before putting the committee program before the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

County Public Works Director Marvin W. Brigham felt he needed more time to explore how much gasoline tax money might be earmarked for the proposed scheme. The plan is designed to give extra money to the cities for improvement of thoroughfares running through them.

Tentative figures put before the committee yesterday may be over-optimistic, Brigham intimated. He felt the cities might look for $100,000 in the fiscal year 1961-62 but not for the $176,894 set down as an estimate by the county administrator's office as a county contribution to be matched by the cities.

Asst. County Administrator Alan Bruce, who conducted yesterday's meeting, said he would advise next Tuesday's meeting of the supervisors that the city officials concur in their view that widening projects should be kept mainly to those streets that can be widened without buying improved property.

First matter taken up was the question of which roads are to be affected by the plan. At last week's initial meeting the committee agreed to tentative listing of all thoroughfares which seemed of major arterial category, but it was not then clear how the mileage worked out as between incorporated and unincorporated areas.

Calculations submitted yesterday showed a total of 60.48 miles of road felt to warrant top priority for county money. Of this, 31.29 miles, amounting to 51.5 per cent, lay in unincorporated areas. City totals were as follows:

Novato, 6.41 miles or 10.5 per cent; San Rafael 5.49 miles, 9 per cent; Mill Valley 4.86 miles, 8 per cent; Corte Madera 3.51 miles, 5.8 per cent; San Anselmo 2.48 miles, 4.1 per cent; Sausalito 2.21 miles, 3.6 per cent; Fairfax 2.05 miles, 3.4 per cent; Larkspur 1.72 miles, 2.8 per cent; Ross .82 mile, 1.3 per cent.

City Administrator Douglas Flautt of San Anselmo, not present at the first meeting, complained that Center Street should be included as well as the part of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard from Red Hill Avenue in San Anselmo to the northwest limit of Fairfax.

Others countered that they had similar parallel-traffic problems and would ask corresponding inclusions if Flautt prevailed. This led to rearrangement of the proposed formula, requiring fresh quota calculations on a basis of whether thoroughfares were to be classed as two-lane, four-lane or six-lane.

The plan provided that the county would annually allocate to the arterial-road program, including both county and city sections, a set amount of its highway users tax funds. Portions going to the cities would be matched by the cities involved.

It was agreed that the list of highways to be improved might be subject to change within the five-year period, but addition of new mileage shouldn't affect a city's quota of funds.

Corte Madera Girl Friday Quits Posts

Mrs. Portia Fitzgerald, secretary of the Corte Madera Planning Commission and Board of Adjustments, who also types minutes for the board of design, has submitted her resignation from all three positions as of Aug. 1, it was announced by Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow.

Mrs. Fitzgerald, who lives at 17 Carlson Avenue in San Anselmo, will continue to hold her part-time position as secretary of the Corte Madera sanitary district. She has been the planners' secretary for five years and has worked with the boards of design and adjustments since they were created about four years ago.

An increasing amount of work with the sanitary district is the reason Mrs. Fitzgerald gave for her resignation.

Brandow said the town was looking for a replacement with stenographic and shorthand ability who can also take minutes of meetings.

Pony Express Riders Enter Nebraska, Utah

WENDOVER, Utah (UPI)— Dusty Pony Express riders spurred their mounts across Utah and Colorado borders early today in temperatures of more than 100 degrees.

The centennial re-enactment of the famed mail service held to its split-second schedule within minutes as westbound riders passed through the Nevada desert where the only things moving were jackrabbits and occasional coyotes.

Meanwhile, east-bound riders passed through Julesburg, Colo., in the northeast corner of the state, before cutting back into the Nebraska panhandle.

An eastbound rider yesterday pulled up to Nevada's historic Ruby Station, marked by a monument dedicated last Sunday by U. S. Chief Justice Earl Warren.

The original station was spared by Indians because its tender, Frederick William Hurst, once had given them food and water.

The Indians told him they would burn other stations, but leave his alone. They lived up to their pledge.

The eastbound riders, traveling across Nebraska's rolling wheat and range lands, made up time yesterday lost because of ceremonies and traffic.

They passed such points as Fort Kearney, one of the west's first defenses against Indian attack, and Scout's Rest Ranch, home of Buffalo Bill Cody.

Bedeau-Seeley Vows Traded In Mill Valley

Bells of Ireland and white carnations decorated the altar of the Little Chapel of the Mill Valley Community Church for the Saturday wedding of Mary Lois Seeley of Belvedere and Robert William Bedeau of Oakland.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tyler Woodward Seeley of Belvedere. The benedict is the son of Mrs. O. Angus Vogt of Sacramento and the late Grover W. Bedeau.

Rev. Dr. Benton S. Gaskell was the officiating minister for the 2 o'clock double ring ceremony.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a champagne gown of silk organza and Alencon lace fashioned with a Sabrina neckline and full skirt. She had a starched cage veil and carried an heirloom lace handkerchief. Her flowers were white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. John Sindall, sister of the bridegroom of Piedmont, as honor attendant, wore an eggshell embroidered sheath. She had a white veil hat and accessories and carried a miniature bouquet of pink carnations and roses.

Lloyd E. Hansen of Piedmont was best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Seeley chose an ivory eyelet embroidered cotton satin sheath with matching jacket. She had a matching organza petal hat and green orchids.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a frock of beige lace over green taffeta and black accessories. Her flowers were white orchids.

A reception for members of the immediate family followed the ceremony in the Belvedere Room of the Alta Mira Hotel. Pink roses and carnations in milk glass compotes were used in arrangements.

For a wedding trip to the Mother Lode Country, the bride had a black and white heavy cotton suit with black patent accessories and red flower hat. Her flowers were white orchids.

The bride attended College of Marin and Washington State University.

The bridegroom was educated at the University of Nevada and the University of California where he was affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity. He is employed with the Hartford Insurance Co. in San Francisco.

Early Days Reviewed At Party

50,000

The 50,000th Volkswagen to be handled by our distributor group arrived July 19—6 years to the month after No. 1 made its West Coast debut at Reynold Johnson's. In 6 short years an unknown, beetle-shaped car from abroad has become a California institution.

At first people would come in to kick tires—just curious. They were invited to try VW's torsion-bar ride on the road . . . one dealer always surprised them with a 30 mph dash across fully exposed railroad tracks. Instead of shattering disaster, hardly a rumble.

They learned that Volkswagen's parts and service network is just as sweet machinery as the car itself. As a result 50,000 Californians, and their wives and kids, have welcomed Volkswagen into their families and into their hearts.

There are many more than 50,000 Volkswagens on the road hereabouts (There are half a million in the whole U.S.). One reason—this is sightseeing territory, and VW is a highway tourist's dream, with 32 miles-per-gallon economy, lots of baggage space, an air-cooled engine that can sing along all day at 70 mph.

By the way, have you noticed how shipshape most owners keep their Volkswagens looking? Makes No. 50,000 all but indistinguishable from No. 1 . . . makes the Volkswagen you start enjoying today worth lots, lots more—50,000 cars from now.

They formed an arch with the American flags. The presidents marched under this before going to their stations.

Chairmen Named For Episcopal Fall Festival

With plans already underway, the two chairmen, Mrs. Burke Edwards and Mrs. Richard Fuller, have announced that the forthcoming St. Francis Episcopal Church fall festival, to be held Sept. 17, will be larger than ever.

Mrs. Edwards stated that all proceeds from the festival this year will be applied toward retiring the church debt, and with this new incentive the Episcopal Churchwomen have planned many new ideas that will entice the festival-goer.

At the recent meeting Mrs. Edwards and Mrs. Fuller presented their plans and appointed the festival committee. In addition to the attractive booths that will be well stocked with food and fancies, the traditional luncheon will be served at the noon hour.

Mrs. Kenneth Cleator presided at the meeting; Mrs. John Cassil conducted the worship service, and Mrs. Charles Adkins presented an article on the Trinity Season.

The next meeting of the ECW will be held Aug. 1 at 8 p.m. Mrs. Milton Farmer of Berkeley will be the principal speaker. Mrs. Farmer has spent many years in active service for the Episcopal Churchwomen in California and will be remembered here as the mother of Rev. Peter Farmer, the first vicar of St. Francis Mission.

Filip Opler, Happy Russell Are Engaged

Pink champagne, pink hearts, and pink carnations set the theme for the surprise announcement of the engagement of Jeretta (Happy) Russell to Filip Opler Wednesday night in Larkspur.

Mrs. Carlotta Thomas of Larkspur, hostess of the party for her Druid sister, prepared Italian dishes for her guests. After dinner, bottles of champagne, hung with pink and white hearts and the names "Jerette" and "Filip" were placed on the table.

Enjoying the celebration with the bride-elect were Mesdames J. W. Sallee, Arturo Barsuglia, Leo Diner, Perry Lamson, Geneva Rapuano, James Donnelly, Karl von Buchau and Misses Helen Grossman and Stephanie von Buchau.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. William Shumate of Los Banos and the late Mr. Shumate. She is a graduate of St. Luke's Hospital and employed at Hamilton Air Force Base Hospital. The future benedict is the owner of Marin Smart Shop in San Rafael.

Four Organizations Prepare For Bolinas Rummage Sale, Bazaar

Right about now, as has been the case for the past 13 years, Bolinas is an "Island in Time" —to borrow a phrase from the Pt. Reyes Peninsula conservation film.

The climax is reached on August 6, with the opening of the 14th Annual Bolinas Bazaar and Rummage Sale.

As in the past, four organizations are participating in the work and in the proceeds. These are: Calvary Presbyterian Church, St. Mary Magdalene Catholic Church, St. Aidan's Episcopal Church and the Bolinas Community Center.

Chairmen are Mesdames Sherman Smith and Harvey Crotts, Joseph Silviera Jr., and Anthony Teixeira, Wilson P. Goddard and Jack Lowe, Erwin Manheim and William Miller.

The sewing group and practitioners of other handicrafts have been producing sales items throughout the year, but now comes the usual scramble for rummage material and once again Bolinasites are urged to scour their closets, attic and cellars for articles. On July 23rd the Community Center will be closed to all other activities as the committee starts to ready for the sale.

Those interested in the sale are urged to bring donations directly to the Center on that date and every day thereafter until Aug. 6. It is particularly important to bring in articles that need cleaning and mending as early as possible. The committee will pick up articles that are too heavy for the owners to move. The date of the sale this year is Aug. 6, 7 and 8th.

Save Those Bones

When you serve an elegant roast of prime ribs of beef, use the bones next day. Spread them with prepared mustard and sprinkle them generously with fine dry bread crumbs. Then heat under the broiler, turning so the crumbs will brown on all sides. Be sure to leave a fair portion of meat on the bones when they are carved from the roast. This is a restaurant favorite that can appear at home!

Come-As-You-Are Breakfast Given

Twelve members of Tamalpais Circle 183, United Ancient Order of Druids, were surprised recently for a come-as-you-are breakfast given by Mesdames Joseph Zaborowski and George Giannecchini at the latter's home in Mill Valley.

Guests were Mesdames James Rhoades, William Wylie, Edward Beach, Peter Sutherland, John Roacha, Daniel Byrne, Robert Bynum, Eugene Stone, Jack Ward, Frank Reece, Alan Haggerty and Alice Dillon.

Games were played after breakfast.

Women Hold Key Jobs At GOP Convention Opening Monday

EDITOR'S NOTE—When the gavel sounds opening the Republican National Convention in Chicago Monday, women will step into some of the confab's key jobs—from parliamentarian to executive director. These are some of the women and the roles they will be playing.

By FRANCES LEWINE

MRS. CLARE WILLIAMS—The first major speaker on the Republican convention program in Chicago, Mrs. Williams is an indefatiguable, blue-eyed blonde with a lifetime love of politics.

For the past two years, she has been assistant GOP national chairman in charge of women's activities.

It has taken her over 120,000 miles to almost every state—plugging the GOP.

Mrs. Williams, who once taught speech and oral English and had a career as a high fashion buyer, is putting all her prior training and experience to good use in the political field.

Born in Syracuse, N.Y., widow of a prominent St. Louis attorney, Frank Williams, she lived for many years in Florida and got her training in politics there from the precinct up.

She's a Florida national committeewoman and was appointed assistant GOP chairman in July, 1958, Mrs. Williams, who is tall and thin and never worries about her weight, lives in a Washington, D.C., hotel when she's not traveling. She works fulltime for the GOP and thrives on the rigors of campaigning.

To be successful in politics, she says, a woman must "look like a girl, act like a lady, think like a man and work like a dog."

MRS. ELIZABETH HEFFELFINGER — The roll caller for the Republican convention, Mrs. Heffelfinger of Wayzata, Minn., the convention secretary, describes herself as a "Progressive Republican."

Wife of Minneapolis grain executive F. Peavey Heffelfinger, former chairman of the GOP national finance committee, she got into politics two decades ago, working for Wendell Willkie.

Mrs. Heffelfinger has attended every national convention of her party since 1939.

She says she plans to retire as a national committeewoman when her term expires this year "to make way for younger blood." She has been national committeewoman from Minnesota since 1949.

She also served as a delegate to the U.N. Economic and Social Council twice, under appointment by President Eisenhower.

The Republicans have had a woman convention secretary since 1948. The Democrats named a woman, Mrs. Dorothy Vredenburg, in 1944. She is still serving.

MRS. CONSUELO NORTHROP BAILEY — Mrs. Bailey made history by being the first woman lieutenant governor in the United States when she was elected in Vermont in 1954.

Now, she's done it again as the first woman chairman of the GOP convention committee on call.

Her job in connection with the call of the convention is now just about over, but she also goes to the convention as a national committeewoman from her state and a vice chairman of the GOP national committee. She hasn't missed a convention since 1936.

Mrs. Bailey's long career in politics and public service includes a stint as speaker of the Vermont House of Representatives, the first woman in her state and second in the country in such a post.

She also has been in the Vermont Senate and held the post of state's attorney for Burlington county, Vt. As the prosecutor, she was the first woman ever to try a murder case in Vermont.

Mrs. Bailey, an attorney, has been admitted to practice before the U.S. Supreme Court, and she and her husband operate a law firm in their home town.

REP. KATHERINE ST. GEORGE (R-NY) — As GOP convention parliamentarian for the second time, Rep. St. George doesn't expect any problems.

She got through the 1956 convention without a hitch and expects her fellow Republicans to make things easy for her again.

The GOP convention has a set of rules spelled out, unlike the Democrats who go by precedence and the ways of Congress.

A widow, she has represented the wealthy Tuxedo Park, N.Y., district in Congress since 1947.

When she was picked to be convention parliamentarian for the 1956 convention, she was the first woman named to that key spot in either party.

MISS JOSEPHINE GOOD — For two years now, Jo Good, a tall, slender blonde, has been planning the GOP convention—from alloting tickets to reminding committees to meet.

She's the first women executive director of a convention as far as political veterans of either major party can remember.

Miss Good will cart along several big file cabinets to set up her convention office in Chicago.

She'll even provide a prompt script so the chairman will know what he's supposed to do every minute.

A native of Denver, Colo., wartime member of the coast guard SPARS, secretary to congressmen and onetime aide to Postmaster General and GOP Chairman Arthur Summerfield, Miss Good was selected for her job in 1956.

At that time, her predecessor, the man who ran the GOP conventions for 30 years, the late William Donald, was in failing health.

For the 1956 convention in San Francisco, Donald was too ill to attend and Miss Good went in his place, working with an occasional assist from Donald 3,000 miles away.

"Nothing came up that I didn't feel equipped to handle," she says.

This year, she's on her own for the first time, responsible for keeping the convention rolling along by handling the infinite details.

MRS. C. WAYLAND BROOKS—From the host city of Chicago, energetic and attractive Mrs. Brooks will have the job of looking after the thousands of delegates and convention spectators.

She's the widow of the late Sen. C. Wayland Brooks of Illinois, and when not politicking, runs the Flat Top Sheep Co. Ranch in the Saw Tooth Mountains, 40 miles from Sun Valley, Idaho.

A top spot for the ladies on Mrs. Brooks' party schedule is a big glamor luncheon Wednesday, July 27, with a "great lady" theme.

Feature of the luncheon will be a display of exact copies of first ladies inaugural gowns, originals of which are on display in the Smithsonian Institution in Washington.

A copy of the dress worn by Mrs. Abraham Lincoln, wife of the President nominated a century ago, will be modeled by Mrs. Everett Dirksen, wife of the senator from Lincoln's home state of Illinois.

And Mrs. Eisenhower's first inaugural ballgown—a dazzling pink number—will be worn by Mrs. William G. Stratton, wife of the governor of Illinois.

Mrs. Brooks, who hopes Vice President Nixon will be the presidential candidate, has been Republican national committeewoman from Illinois since 1957.

Designers Collections Blind Fashion Press With Brilliance

By JOY MILLER

NEW YORK (AP) — Another day of viewing vast collections of glitter gowns, and American fashion writers might start showing up in sunglasses.

It would be a sensible precaution at that. The climax of nearly every New York designer's collection shown the fashion press so far this week sparkled with blinding brilliance.

What makes it an occupational hazard worth the risk is that the fall clothes are worth blinking at. Ingenuity, good taste and glitter seem to have been lavished in equal proportions.

Ceil Chapman is a case in point. Her dresses at Tuesday afternoon's showing were all that knowledgeable women have come to expect from her: exquisitely wrought creations that dress up a woman to meet the big events in her life, or simply to stagger the stage line.

Her afternoon and evening clothes made use of the lowered waistline, yokes, floating back panels, hipbands for an easy, lowered, elegantly feminine look.

The 1960 "Venus dress" had more than one touch of refined seduction in its darts and folds strategically placed in a long piece of fabric draped around the body. Her "phantom" silhouette reached its height in a black evening dress of wide flaring tiers of shadow lace. And her colors, in tropical orchid shades from greenish brown to crimson, were exotically adaptable.

But it was her glitter gowns that got greatest applause.

Norman Hartnell Collection Within Price Range Of All

By CHINA ALTMAN

LONDON (UPI)—Queen Elizabeth's dressmaker proved today that he can make clothes fit for princesses, duchesses and you. For you it will cost $44.40.

Norman Hartnell opened his fall and winter collection by showing high fashion within the price range of almost everyone. Then he topped it off with breath-taking evening gowns in the grand manner, each worth a small fortune.

His low-budget high-fashion consisted of eight suits in beautiful English tweeds and woolens, nearly all with tightly fitted skirts and jackets ending about two to three inches below the waistline. A few were belted at the waist.

The colors were bright red, several variations of brown and a smoky green which he describes as "bottle green."

For day, green was his favorite color, with variations called bottle brush, evergreen, silver green and willow. For late afternoon and evening he used mostly black, bright reds, royal blues and violet.

Hemlines were about an inch and a half to two inches below the knee.

Most beautiful creation in the collection was called "It's Showing" and brought exclamations of delight from the fashion editors. A black velvet coat, hanging in luxurious folds was lined with white fox and worn over a plain black velvet cocktail dress. The accompanying hat was a huge round concoction in white fur. A veil dotted with tiny snow flakes covered the face.

Most stunning of the evening gowns was a scarlet taffeta lace which Hartnell named "Old Flame." Reminiscent of the thirties, it was tightly fitted down to a point about three inches below the knee when it suddenly burst into extravagant fullness that whirled around the model's feet as she walked.

John Cavanagh's collection was notable for what it left out, which in many cases was collars, tight skirts and fitted waistlines.

His line was embodied in a beautiful bright suit made with a high wide neckline, no collar, and a jacket which dropped straight from the shoulders and ended about two inches below the waist. The skirt was an easy style—not straight or full—with a few gathers at the waist. Over the suit was worn a stunning great coat of muted chartreuse, cut in traditional style but again with no collar.

One of the most imaginative creations in his collection was an overcoat of cavalry twill trimmed with a standup beaver collar. It was worn—startling enough—over a dress of beige chiffon.

Mrs. Early Cobb To Entertain At A Luncheon

Mrs. Early Cobb will give a luncheon tomorrow at 2 o'clock at her home in Marin City to honor four Lisle Fellowship students and members of the Marin City Women's Council.

The Lisle Fellowship students are Miss Gertrude Lieberman, a teacher of English and social studies in a Philadelphia junior high school; Miss Kvie Nam Rhee, who is studying international relations and political science at the University of Pittsburgh; Stuart McIntosh, a graduate of the University of South Africa and London School of Economics; and Ahmed Bakkali, a sociology student at Columbia University in New York.

Attending the luncheon in addition to the honored guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Billy Washington, Mesdames J. M. Smith, Roosevelt Carrie, John Wright, Leslie Hicks, Lewis Conn, T. H. Duke, Otis Williams, Virginia Porter, Santa Fe Moses, S. L. Banks, Leola Rardolph, Shirley Zuurbier, J. E. Berry and W. C. Hall; and the Misses Jerry Marks, Beverly and Johnnie Barnes, Wyna Barron and Florence Scott.

Some Suggestions On Living With The Children During Hot Weather

Hot, isn't it?

The kids are underfoot. You have too much to do. You're counting the weeks until school reopens. Right?

There's nothing wrong with you, or is there? The heat doesn't bother you, or does it? But of course it's the rest of the family that gets crabby when the temperature soars. Good old summer!

I have three tried and true suggestions for living with children in hot weather. You'll enjoy following them!

RELAX: Of course your baby won't guzzle her solid food the way she did in February. She will specialize in liquids. Of course the older boys will argue about mowing the lawn. Of course your house will be dirtier with the youngsters trooping in and out.

Don't worry. These things are inevitable. Lower your standards. Relax a little and feel better.

PLAY: Summer is playtime for us. You had a strenuous winter and spring. The fall will bring back many responsibilities. But your pace can be slower now.

Do you like to swim, fish, watch ball games, sit under a tree with a book or gossip with your friends? You can do these things with a clear conscience in July and August.

SHARE: Share your relaxation and play with your children. They can enjoy many of the things you do.

Your offspring need to see you as a pleasant companion part of the time, not just as a mother or father. They need to have fun with you. You'll build important family ties if you share your fun with them.

Me? I'm heading for the swimming pool right now with my gang.

Did You Know?

That the soundest investment in the future that you can make are in

EICHLER HOMES
in
Terra Linda Valley

On a comparison basis with the value of one of the world's most respected automobiles, with the long established record of holding it's value, here is what happens to your investment in America's most wanted homes.

Using automobile dealer-accepted hand book for determining train-in value:

Car purchased in 1954, declined by 1959 to 30% of original cost.

THE EICHLER HOME

purchased in 1954 increased each year by 5% in value to 125% in 1959! Others have been resold for as much as 35% more!

Meanwhile, remember all the interest and taxes were deducted each year from the purchaser's income tax.

You too can still take advantage of this ever rising value now.

SUMMER SCHOOL IS SEW-AND-SEW

San Rafael girls who completed fourth, fifth and sixth grades last month are learning how to be seamstresses (thus perhaps taking a bit of the pinch off daddy's bankroll) at this summer school class at San Rafael High School. Teacher Peggy Flynn seems to approve the sewing underway by Lynne McFarlane, kneeling in foreground. The class is one of a wide variety at the San Rafael summer school, which winds up its session today.

BOOKS COME BACK TO NOVATO LIBRARY

Members of the Alfred G. McElroy family of Novato had to make a lot of trips to the Novato branch of the Marin County Library the past couple of days. The library re-opened after remodeling which refurbished it and doubled its size. And against its shutdown, the McElroys had supplied themselves well with reading matter. They had 75 books to return. Here turning in some of them are (from left) Diana, Linda, Kathy and Patty McElroy. Mrs. Edward Leach, librarian, checks in the volumes. (Independent-Journal photo)

'Learn To Swim' Signups Slated

Registration for the third session of Marin's "Learn to swim" program is set for Monday at 8:30 a.m. at Tamalpais, San Rafael and Sir Francis Drake high schools, as well as the Red Cross chapter house in San Rafael.

A class in life saving will be offered at San Rafael high only from 9 to 11 a.m. daily, Tuesday through Saturday, for two weeks.

The swimming classes are free to Marin children on the same days, from 9 a.m. to noon. A fourth and final two-week session will begin Aug. 9. Preference is given students who have not attended a 1960 session.

Real Rug Cutter

POWELL, Wyo. (AP) —A Powell businessman tested his new power lawn mower in his front room.

The demonstration was a success. It cut a neat short turf —somewhat shorter than the rug's nap.

Tam Valley's Shrew Tamed By Stagehand

By BRUCE COLEMAN

Stagehand Alan Burdick, working behind the scenes at the Rhubarb Revue in April, asked a co-worker, "How do they get the nerve to go out in front?"

Five weeks ago the lead dropped out of the Tamalpais Valley Players' cast of Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew" and Burdick stepped in.

It was his first time to do any acting and he not only tamed his stage fears but tamed the bejabbers out of Kathryn, the shrew.

"Kiss Me Kate," he would say after he had starved, cuffed and maligned her, and no man ever had it so good.

The six-foot ad man (by day) was strong in his part and did a fine job. No less was Kate, or Kathryn, acted by Kim Badger. She was a hellion, Kate the cursed until she came up against Burdick. Her tongue was fiery, her hand quick to slap. Mrs. Badger, once with the Chicago Ballet, turned in an excellent performance. She was also seen in the Players' "All My Sons" and "The Women."

Other fine performances were made by Jay Irving as the tinker, Christopher Sly. The old red beard was a natural and our only complaint was his brief time upon the stage. This also goes for Morrie Batz as the tailor.

Joe Allen, as Hortensio, has been with the players since they started five years ago. He isn't acting. He is Hortensio. His speech and delivery were outstanding.

Dick Blaustein, who plays Biondello, made for many laughs with his frog leaps around the long stage. His speech without breath taking was especially funny.

Another buffoon was Dick Miller playing a servant. Pouchy at the stomach, chubby cheeked and red as an apple, Miller matched his bulbous appearance by amusing the audience. Norman Beals had some good speeches, one of the best being his description of the wedding. He was good but could have more power in voice.

In fact, the voice carrying was, all in all, rather poor, even though we sat in the front row. This was borne out by a colleague who sat half way back. Maybe it was the lack of acoustics in the World War I rafters or maybe it was the Players.

Pete Lenz played Lucentio. He and Carolyn Fetler, as Bianca, made convincing lovers. Dan Mulcahy, Dunya Chernenko, Guy Howard, Donald Irving and Barry Walton played supporting roles. Cliff Badger directed, scenery was done by Joe Allen, costumes by Esther Allen and stage managing by Orne Grant.

As usual, the Players' spirit was abundant. Costumes were gathered from rummage houses. Two days were spent doing the facade of the building into an Elizabethan theater. And the tarts in between the acts with coffee, were tart.

The play goes on again tonight at 8:30, tomorrow, and next Friday and Saturday.
